SAINTS IN THE COMMUNITY

The New Orleans Saints Community Affairs Department is committed to supporting the charitable efforts of our club's ownership, players, coaches and staff throughout the Gulf South region. This dedication to charitable causes and individuals in need was a defining trait of Tom Benson's 33-year tenure as Owner of the franchise and now that legacy carries on under the leadership of Gayle Benson. As a philanthropic force in the community, the club is committed to exercising its core beliefs and basic expectations of every member of the New Orleans Saints organization, defined by its participation in initiatives that will have a positive and lasting impact on the people in our community.

RESPONDING TO THE COMMUNITY IN TIMES OF CRISES

The relationship between the Saints and its fans is unique in the world of sports. The team has been the recipient of unqualified support from the community since its inception and welcomes the opportunity to give back - particularly in times of crisis. Following the devastation of Hurricanes Katrina and Rita, the Saints raised over $1 million through the Saints Hurricane Katrina Relief Fund. In the wake of the 2010 Gulf Coast Oil Spill, the team raffled a Super Bowl XLIV ring, raising over $1.5 million to aid charities and organizations that assisted victims of the spill.

When Louisiana residents suffered from widespread flooding and tornadoes in 2016, the Saints sprang into action with fundraising, volunteer efforts, and collected donations to support organizations that made the greatest impact including Second Harvest Food Bank of Greater New Orleans & Acadiana, Audubon Institute, United Way, Catholic Charities, American Red Cross, and the Greater New Orleans Foundation. Most recently, the club raised funds to benefit individuals impacted by Hurricane Harvey in 2017.

The Saints also will continue its commitment to prioritize efforts that build awareness and support for issues challenging the Gulf South by working to safeguard and promote our wetlands and energy production, as they are critical to our nation's future economic vitality.

SPECIAL ATTENTION TO YOUTH & EDUCATION

The Saints organization believes in the future of New Orleans and the Gulf South, and understands that our community's children are our greatest resource and hope for a stronger region. Our Community Affairs and Youth Programs Departments conduct and assist over 350 events and initiatives every year, focusing on the development and education of our children.

Throughout the year, Saints players, Legends, and staff visit schools and various community centers to stress the importance of education, physical fitness, nutrition, leadership development, character building and time management. The club partners with a variety of organizations including (but not limited to) Boys & Girls Clubs, Special Olympics, Boy and Girl Scouts, United Way, Make-A-Wish, NFL YET Center, Kingsley House, Teach for America, Youth Empowerment Project, and NORD.

SUPPORT AND IMPACT FOR THE ENTIRE COMMUNITY

While supporting youth and education is the club's primary focus, significant resources are also dedicated to enrich the lives of individuals in other areas of need. In its second year, the Saints 50/50 Charity Raffle's season total jackpot amounted to nearly $1 million, allowing the organization to assist thousands of people across the Gulf South region through the works of the benefitting charities. Local and national non-profit organizations have received proceeds garnered via the club's annual Draft Super Boil to serve members of our community, as well as the Saints 5K Kickoff Run (now the largest 5K in the state) which has raised nearly $500,000. Saints ownership, executives, and staff members serve on numerous community organization boards, and partner with those entities to assist or co-develop appropriate programs with a plethora of organizations including (but not limited to) CADA of Greater New Orleans, American Heart Association, Second Harvest Food Bank, City Park of New Orleans, Saintsgiving at Dryades YMCA, Toys for Tots, Young Leadership Council, Rebuilding Together New Orleans, American Red Cross, Volunteers of America, United Negro College Fund, and Bridge House. Each year, millions of dollars are given back to the community by the Saints through the donation of cash, goods and services, media, and sponsorship.

Whether through financial support, in-kind donations, charitable appearances or just lending a helping hand, the New Orleans Saints are there to reciprocate the support the club has received from its community for 53 years.

SAINTS YOUTH PROGRAMS

The New Orleans Saints Youth Programs Department maintains an active presence in the community throughout the year, bringing National Football League excitement to children who may not have the opportunity to experience the thrill of a Saints football game in person. The Saints reach thousands of children through programs such as the Saints Play Football Experience Camps, Gatorade Junior Training Camps, the Saints Experience, the United Way Community Patrol Camps and the High School 7-on-7 Regional Tournament. The club is also highly involved with all of the NFL's youth football initiatives such as PLAY60, NFL FLAG, and PLAY FOOTBALL MONTH celebrations.

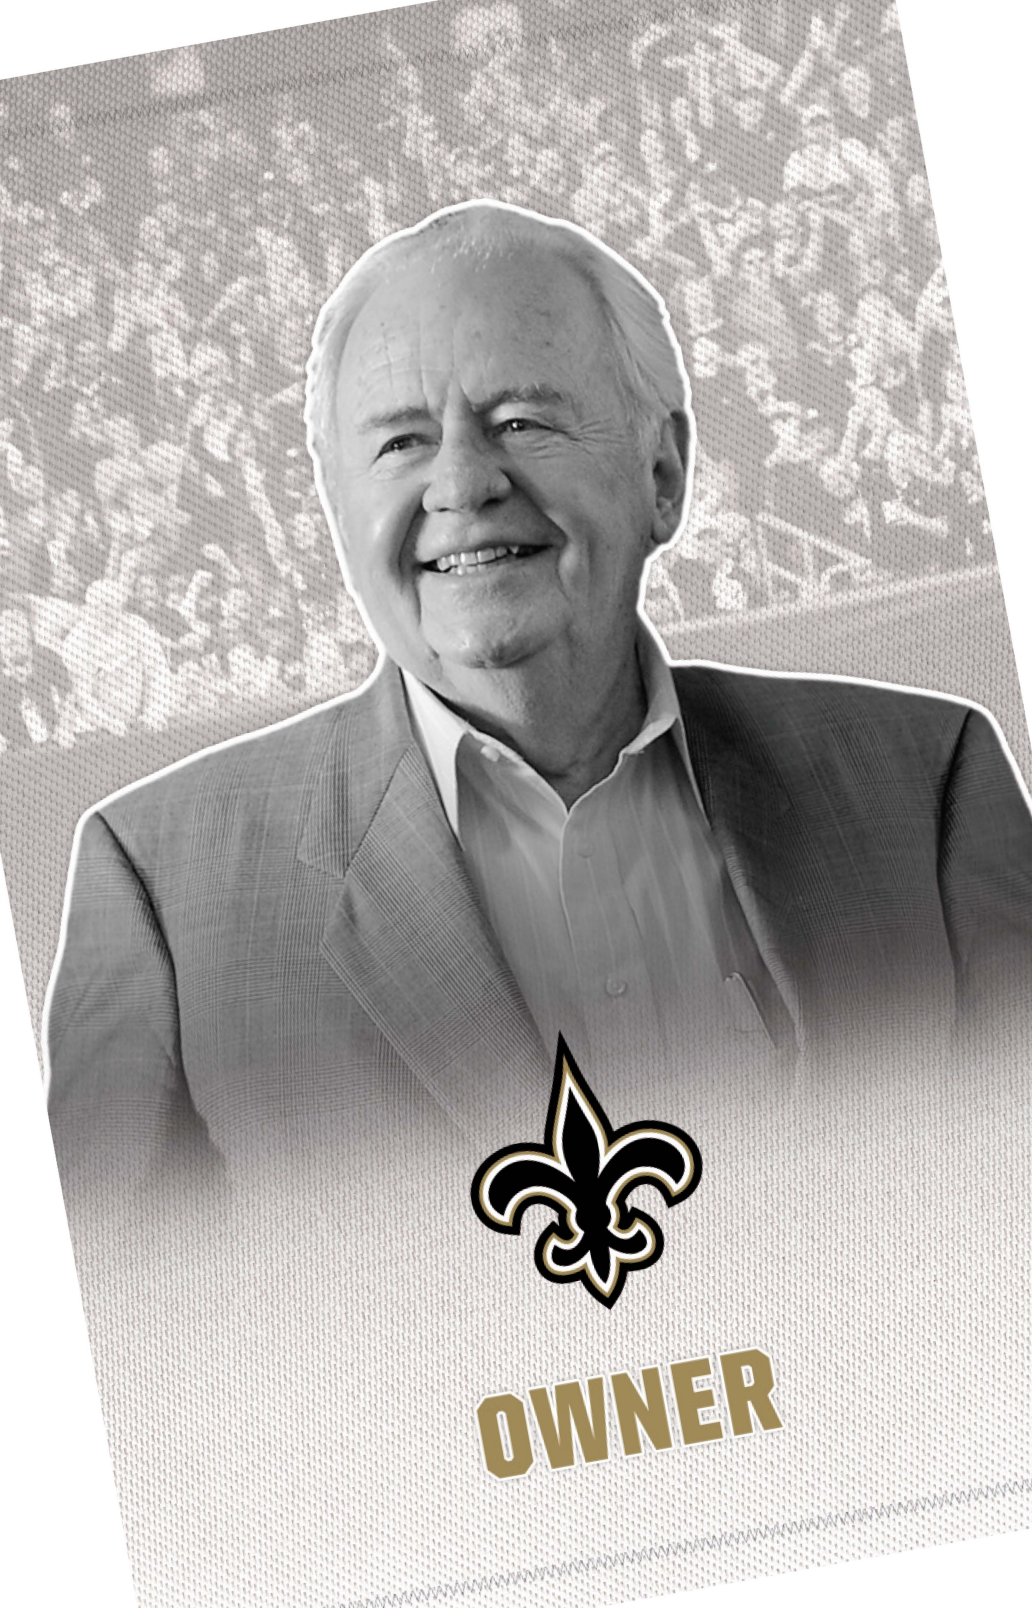

The Saints have continued to champion smarter and safer play for young athletes in partnership with USA FOOTBALL through the Heads Up Football program by hosting Player Safety Clinics, Player/Parent Camps and forums to further educate coaches, parents and players. Across the Gulf Coast, the Saints continue to fully fund Heads Up Football's enrollment fees for every high school in Alabama, Louisiana and Mississippi.

The Saints sponsor the Louisiana High School Athletic Association and are working closely with the LHSAA to implement the InSideOut Initiative in Louisiana. This initiative is supported by the NFL Foundation and seeks to transform the current win-at-all-costs culture, where the value is defined by the win-loss record, to a culture that defines and promotes sports as a human growth experience that focuses on the intentional development of educational, social and emotional well-being of each student-athlete.

The club also honors area high school coaches through the Saints NFL High School Coach of the Week program, which provides $1,000 to each coach's respective football programs. In addition, the Saints collaborate with corporate partners to conduct life skills presentations to high schools throughout the city. Topics such as education, work ethic, leadership, and character as well as post-graduation career opportunities are discussed.

The Youth Programs Department is influential in helping to secure thousands of dollars through the NFL Foundation via the Player Matching, Team and Grassroots Grants. Funding received from these grants are distributed to youth and high school football organizations and support field projects throughout the region. The Saints Youth Task Force meets to address issues facing today's youth football programs. These efforts positively impact the growth and direction of football for youngsters in the community.

Mrs. Benson finishes her first season as Owner with the Saints finishing the regular season with 13 wins, tying the 2009 and 2011 teams for the most victories in team history. New Orleans's 13-3 record earned them back-to-back division titles for the first time in franchise history as they advanced to the NFC Championship for the first time since the 2009 campaign.

OWNER

OWNER

Gayle Benson provides leadership for the New Orleans Saints and New Orleans Pelicans as Owner, succeeding her husband, Tom Benson, who passed away on March 15, 2018, after serving as the Owner of the Saints since 1985 and the Pelicans franchise since 2012. The New Orleans native is an accomplished business professional and philanthropist with strong ties to the local community and who is dedicated to contributing to the growth and enhancement of the Gulf South region.

Mr. and Mrs. Benson worked together to build championship-level NBA and NFL organizations, housed in state-of-the-art facilities at the Ochsner Sports Performance Center, Mercedes-Benz Superdome and Smoothie King Center, while making a positive impact in the community away from the football field and basketball court as well.

With the Saints franchise under the guidance of Mr. and Mrs. Benson, the team has reached new heights since 2006, when they entrusted Executive-Vice President/General Manager Mickey Loomis to hire Sean Payton as head coach and sign unrestricted free agent quarterback Drew Brees. Since those moves, the franchise has reached its highest point of success, posting a 133-89 record from 2006-18, featuring seven playoff berths, five division titles, three NFC Championship appearances and the Super Bowl XLIV title. Off-the-field, the completely renovated Mercedes-Benz Superdome's been sold-out on a season ticket basis for every campaign since 2006, with a waiting list of over 73,000 people and 136 consecutive sellouts going into 2019. The club has also positioned itself as a leader in the community, assisting with the recovery from several disasters, while also working to enhance the region as a whole.

In Mrs. Benson's first season of ownership in 2018, New Orleans advanced to the NFC Championship for the first time since the 2009 campaign and finished the year capturing back-to-back division titles for the first time in franchise history. The team also posted a 7-1 record on the road and 6-2 mark at home during the regular season, tying a single-season record and tying for the NFL lead in wins away from home.

Following in the footsteps of her late husband, who played a significant role in the city of New Orleans hosting five Super Bowls during his ownership and wielded extensive influence and respect among owners with a 25-year tenure as Chairman of the Finance Committee, Mrs. Benson has become instrumental with her influence and leadership in league issues, serving on the Audit, Business Ventures and Hall of Fame Committees. She helped the city land Super Bowl LVII to be played in 2014, which will mark the 11th time that Louisiana and the Crescent

City will serve as a host, tying with Miami for the most Super Bowls by a host city. The economic impact of Super Bowl XLVII, played in 2013, which Mr. Benson successfully campaigned for, was $480 million, not to mention the exposure and charitable contributions the NFL makes during Super Bowl week that extends for generations. Mrs. Benson's committed to continuing to bring Super Bowls to New Orleans. She is also committed to improving the game at the league level. In the 2019 offseason she was influential at the League meetings in the passage of a rules change expanding the instant replay review and challenge process.

Immediately upon Mr. and Mrs. Benson's purchase of the former Hornets franchise from the NBA in 2012, construction began on a state-of-the-art basketball practice facility to house the entire organization together and the franchise would also be rebranded as the Pelicans. Through agreements with the State of Louisiana upon the purchase of the Pelicans, the Smoothie King Center has undergone a complete renovation since the 2012 purchase, featuring a new center-hung HD scoreboard, which debuted in 2015, along with several additional fan upgrades. Through this commitment, NBA All-Star Weekend was awarded to New Orleans in 2014 and 2017, making the city one of just six current NBA markets to host the mid-season event at least three times. Mrs. Benson, recently appointed as a member of the NBA's Labor Relations Committee, has overseen a significant overhaul of the Pelicans organization in 2019. In April, she hired Executive Vice President of Basketball Operations David Griffin. Griffin has made several key hires to the Pelicans basketball staff in General Manager Trajan Langdon, Vice President of Basketball Operations/Team Development Swin Cash and Vice President of Player Care and Performance Aaron Nelson. Through the support of these organizational improvements by Mrs. Benson, combined with New Orleans winning the NBA Draft Lottery and selecting the 2018-19 Associated Press College Player of the Year in Duke forward Zion Williamson with the first overall pick, the Pelicans have established a solid foundation for 2019-20 and beyond.

Community investment and giving back have been hallmarks of Mr. and Mrs. Benson's ownership of the Saints and Pelicans. This tradition continues under Mrs. Benson's stewardship as she has further enriched the New Orleans community through her support to causes in the health and wellness, cancer care, education, arts and faith-based sectors.

As dedicated corporate citizens, the Saints and Pelicans annually put millions of dollars back into the community in financial support, in-kind donations, charitable appearances and donations of goods and services. Mrs. Benson's philanthropic leadership has been recognized far and wide since becoming Owner.

In March, 2018, she and Mr. Benson (posthumously), received a Dermot McGlinchey Lifetime Achievement Award from Tulane University, honoring those who have demonstrated service, volunteer involvement and commitment to Tulane and their hometown communities. In September, 2018, she was inducted into the University of New Orleans' Hall of Distinction, along with her late husband posthumously. In 2015, the couple were honored by the regional chapter of the Anti-Defamation League with the A.I. Botnick Torch of Liberty Award. In 2014, Mrs. Benson was honored by the New Orleans Council for Community and Justice with its Weiss Award, recognizing achievement for exceptional civic and humanitarian contributions.

In March, Mrs. Benson received two important educational honors. She was honored by Xavier University of Louisiana with the Sister Maris Stella "Women of Faith" Award and was recognized by the United Negro College Fund with the group's MASKED Award, for her support of educational opportunities for all. In May, Mrs. Benson was honored by the Allstate Sugar Bowl Chapter of the National Football Foundation/College Football Hall of Fame with its 2019 Distinguished American Award and the National World War II Museum selected her as an American Spirit Medallion recipient. In June, the Greater New Orleans Foundation honored Mrs. Benson with the organization's Spark Plug Award, given to an individual whose philanthropy in the greater New Orleans community has been exemplary.

In addition to serving on the boards of several local educational institutions and the New Orleans Museum of Art, Mrs. Benson also is a member of the Audubon Commission, which oversees the Audubon Nature Institute.

Mrs. Benson has been a longtime trusted and valued member of the local Catholic community, reflecting her deep faith. She's served on Archbishop's Community Appeal campaigns for four different Archbishops over the course of the past 30 years. She has worked tirelessly with the Archdiocese of New Orleans' Catholic Charities organization and its umbrella agencies that feature nearly 50 programs and three affiliated ministries that deliver health and human services to the poor and vulnerable in the eight civil parishes which the Archdiocese serves, as well as food and nutrition services statewide. Mrs. Benson has also worked closely with St. Louis Cathedral's Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults (RCIA) program, as well as with the same program at the Holy Name of Jesus Parish. Mrs. Benson's support of the Church has been recognized on numerous occasions. She has received the Medal of the Order of St. Louis Award for her dedication to the Church. In 2010, she became an Honorary Oblate of Mary Immaculate. She holds a leadership role after being inducted as Dame Commander with Star in the Equestrian Order of the Holy Sepulchre of Jerusalem. In 2012, Mr. and Mrs. Benson received from Pope Benedict XVI the Pro Ecclesia et Pontifice award-for outstanding service to the Church and the Pontiff, the highest Papal award granted to a lay person. In recognition of their longstanding support of Catholic education, the couple also received the 2010 St. Elizabeth Ann Seton Award from the National Catholic Educational Association.

Mrs. Benson began her professional career in 1968 as a manager for noted New York-based costume jeweler Celebrity Jewelry, overseeing and managing the daily operation of over 40 sales associates. She then branched out into real estate development which allowed her to successfully integrate her passion for interior design with property management. Her first real estate transaction occurred in 1978 when she purchased a home in New Orleans's Irish Channel and then sold the property eight months later after extensive restoration. She would go on to purchase, manage and eventually sell several more properties, primarily in the city's Uptown district.

In 1975, Mrs. Benson began a 30-year career in the design industry, a business where she achieved tremendous success. Throughout the course of her interior design career she was recognized with numerous professional awards and served as an inaugural member on the Louisiana State Board of Licensing for Interior Designers for four years. She directed numerous major design efforts with her clients, including the Mercedes-Benz Superdome, several of the city's most prestigious hotels, local supermarket chains and automobile dealerships.

In 2000, Mrs. Benson worked with the Mercedes-Benz Superdome on renovations to the iconic New Orleans landmark's third and fourth level public spaces, in addition to renovations on select suites. She also owned and developed a commercial real estate building on the corner of Laura and Octavia Streets, a women's clothing private enterprise called "Toujours la Ligne" and a designer's showroom called "Designers Resource" which served as a wholesale location for designers and architects seeking to purchase fabric, wall coverings and accessories. The Men of Fashion Committee recognized Mrs. Benson during her career as one of the "Top Ten Best Dressed Women in New Orleans".

In addition to her ownership of the Saints and Pelicans, Mrs. Benson established GMB Racing Stables in 2014 with an initial purchase of seven colts and hiring three veteran trainers, all with Louisiana ties. In 2016, two of the thoroughbreds, Mo Tom and Tom's Ready participated in the Kentucky Derby. Her Lone Sailor horse ran in the 2018 Kentucky Derby. She owns Benson Farm at Greenwood Lodge in Lexington, Ky, a 1,000-acre farm. She also serves as the Owner of three local automotive dealerships, Best Chevrolet, Cadillac of New Orleans and Mercedes-Benz of New Orleans, Dixie Brewing Company and recently partnered to purchase the Hyatt Regency New Orleans.

Mrs. Benson was born in New Orleans and grew up in Old Algiers. She began her education in Catholic schools and in 1966 graduated from Martin Behrman High School. In May, she received an Honorary Doctor of Humane Letters from Loyola University New Orleans, where she was the commencement speaker at the school's 2019 graduation ceremony. She also received an honorary degree, serving as the 2015 Our Lady of Holy Cross College's commencement keynote speaker. Mr. and Mrs. Benson married on October 29, 2004 at the Immaculate Conception Memorial Chapel in San Antonio, Texas.

DENNIS LAUSCHA

PRESIDENT

Dennis Lauscha, a native New Orleanian, has been a fan of the Saints since he was a young boy. He attended Jesuit High School and received degrees in Business, first from the University of Alabama, followed by an M.B.A. from Loyola University. Starting out his career as a C.P.A, Lauscha worked for a major global financial services firm before his decades long career with the Saints. He first joined the Saints in 1998 as Treasurer and as a result of his hard work, loyalty and business acumen, Lauscha rose through the executive ranks to serve as Vice President, Senior Vice President and Executive Vice President before reaching his now esteemed post as President since 2012. In his role, he oversees the club's financial operations, government affairs, marketing, ticket and suite sales, legal, stadium, community affairs, human resources, business intelligence and information technology. He also serves as a representative for both clubs at NFL and NBA Owners meetings.

In addition to his duties with the Saints and Pelicans, the New Orleans native maintains multiple roles within other holdings of Mrs. Benson, maintaining a role in the management of her automotive dealerships, real estate holdings, Dixie Brewing Company and GMB Racing.

Lauscha's collaborative style, financial acumen and long-term view has played a key role as a member of a contingent that has negotiated agreements for both the Saints and Pelicans with the state of Louisiana that have resulted in long-term lease agreements, continuous improvements to their playing and practice facilities, revitalization of the areas around them and generated revenue for the state without any new taxes for citizens.

In 2009, Lauscha helped negotiate the partnership with the Louisiana Governor that continues the Saints' commitment to the state through 2025. The deal included the purchase and redevelopment of the former New Orleans Centre, which has been transformed into Champions Square and the Benson Tower property adjacent to the Mercedes-Benz Superdome, with the stadium itself undergoing extensive renovations and improvements. Since playing a key role in Mr. and Mrs. Benson's purchase of the Pelicans in 2012, Lauscha has helped broker agreements with the state to upgrade the team's playing and practice facilities. Following successful negotiations, the Pelicans are committed to the state through 2024 and the Smoothie King Center has undergone over $50 million in renovations and improvements. Negotiations continue in 2019 to improve the clubs' facilities with an eye toward further lease extensions.

In 2015, Lauscha helped negotiate an agreement with the state that resulted in $40 million in enhancements for fans of both clubs. The Mercedes-Benz Superdome now has state-of-the-art video boards in 2016 in addition to renovated suites and other fan amenities, while a new center-hung HD video scoreboard was installed in the Smoothie King Center. Lauscha has also played a key role in finalizing 2011 and 2014 ground-breaking naming rights and sponsorship agreements for both teams' playing facilities with Mercedes-Benz USA and Smoothie King.

Lauscha was instrumental in the 2003 expansion of the Saints training facility. He later oversaw a renovation and expansion of the facilities and administrative offices for the Saints and Pelicans from 2012-13, while directing the construction of a basketball practice facility. The clubs are now housed on the same site at the Ochsner Sports Performance Center, featuring some of the top facilities in professional sports.

Lauscha's committed to help attract major sporting events to New Orleans. He's a key member of the team that actively pursues future Super Bowls and NCAA Basketball Final Four Championships for New Orleans – and was instrumental in landing Super Bowl XLVII, which was played at the Mercedes-Benz Superdome in 2013 and Super Bowl LVII, which was awarded by the NFL in May, 2018 and will be played in 2024. After Mr. and Mrs. Benson's 2012 purchase of the Pelicans, the city has hosted NBA All-Star Games in 2014 and 2017.

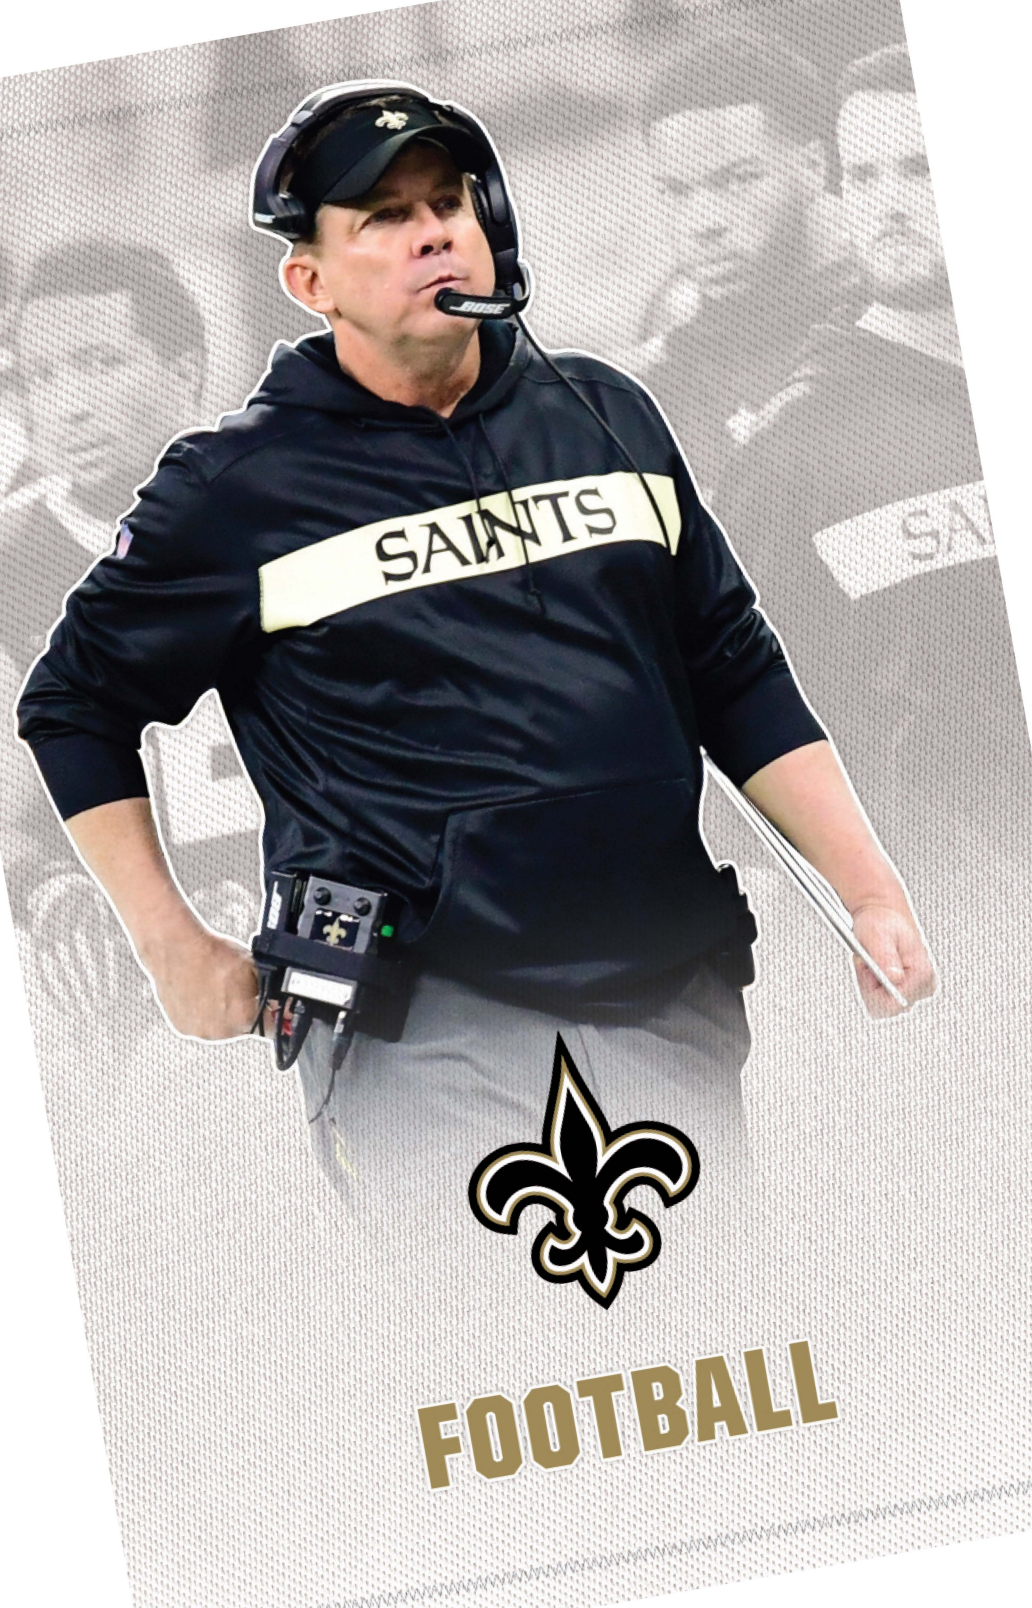

In 2008, Lauscha was a primary member of the negotiating team during the purchase of WVUE FOX 8 and its subsequent relationship with Raycom Media. Prior to Mr. and Mrs. Benson's sale of a majority interest to Raycom in 2017, Lauscha helped steward the station's growth in the Nielsen ratings in the New Orleans market. During their ownership, FOX 8 received numerous honors for their programming and investigative reporting, including a George Foster Peabody Award, two Dupont Awards and eight national Edward R. Murrow Awards

Active throughout both sports and the community, Lauscha currently serves as a member of the Business Council of New Orleans & The River Region, as a board member of the Audubon Nature Institute, a trustee of the National World War II Museum and on the Archdiocese of New Orleans' Catholic Foundation Board of Directors. Lauscha has completed terms as board president of the Preservation Resource Center, president of the regional chapter of the Boy Scouts of America and as a member of the Blight Transition New Orleans Task Force, the Mayor's Transition Committee, the Super Bowl XLVII Host Committee, the 2014 and 2017 NBA All-Star Game Host Committees, the 2012 NCAA Final Four Host Committee, the Loyola University New Orleans School of Business Visiting Committee, the NBA's Team Advisory Council of Presidents and Team CBA Advisory Committee, the NFL's Ticketing Strategy Working Group, the NFL's 100th Anniversary Committee, the NFL's Sports Betting Committee, the Stuart Hall School Board of Trustees and on the New Orleans Museum of Art Board.

Lauscha's dealings with the teams, state officials and local organizations have provided an opportunity for community involvement. His professional and charitable work was recognized by New Orleans CityBusiness, when he was selected as one of the 40 Most Influential Members of the Community. The honor is bestowed on those who are laying the groundwork for a better city. In 2010, he was named the Alumnus of the Year by Loyola's College of Business and was named to the 2010 Class of Role Models by the Young Leadership Council. He was honored by the Allstate Sugar Bowl Chapter of the National Football Foundation/ College Football Hall of Fame with its 2014 Distinguished American Award. In 2015, Lauscha gave the commencement address to the graduates of the University of New Orleans. In 2016, he was inducted into the Order of West Range for the Pi Kappa Alpha Foundation. He was honored as a 2019 Laureate of Junior Achievement's Greater New Orleans chapter. Lauscha has also completed the NFL Managers Program at Stanford University's Executive Education Graduate School of Business.

FOOTBALL

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT/GENERAL MANAGER

Responsible for the club's entire football operations, Executive Vice President/General Manager Mickey Loomis enters his 18th season in his current position and 20th with the Saints. He is a veteran of 35 years in the NFL and during his time in New Orleans has been honored with the most prestigious awards presented to a league executive. Yet the most satisfying achievement of Loomis' career has come in helping mold a roster that has produced many of the franchise's finest moments over the last 13 seasons, including the Super Bowl XLIV championship.

Loomis was promoted to general manager in 2002 and earned the additional title of executive vice president later that year. The departments under his direction include coaching, player personnel and scouting, salary cap management, contract negotiations, athletic training, equipment, video and communications.

In 2006 - after being the key figure in the hiring of Head Coach Sean Payton, the signing of QB Drew Brees and essentially rebuilding a team that would advance to the NFC Championship - Loomis was voted the NFL Executive of the Year by Pro Football Weekly/Pro Football Writers of America. He was also honored by the Sporting News as the George Young Executive of the Year, an award voted on annually by NFL front-office executives and owners.

Loomis has continued to build on the success of 2006, highlighted by seven post-season appearances, five division titles and the Super Bowl victory. Over the past 13 years, he has brought aboard a collection of players who have played a key role in New Orleans posting a 133-89 overall record through a combination of the draft, free agency and trades. He's also presided over the club's ability to retain their core players, re-signing several significant contributors to long-term contracts.

While his responsibilities have grown during his tenure with the Saints, Loomis has been a key figure in the highest management circle of the organization since arriving in 2000. Loomis joined the club as director of football administration, a post he held until 2002, handling contract negotiations, managing the salary cap and coordinating different areas of the football operations.

In 2005, Loomis helped steer the club through unprecedented challenges for an NFL team. He calmly guided the staff and players through a sudden evacuation from New Orleans in the wake of Hurricane Katrina, in addition to several moves of the club's base of operations.

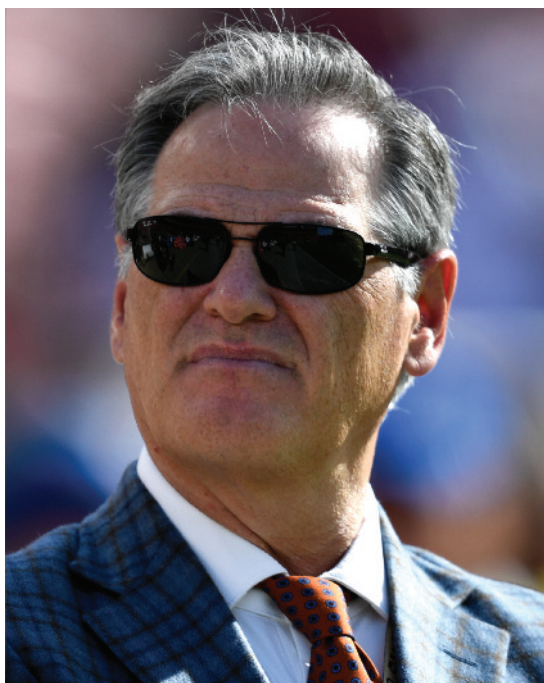

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT/GENERAL MANAGER

Since 2003, Loomis has overseen three extensive renovations of Saints headquarters that have added an indoor practice facility, new weight room and cafeteria and completely renovated coaches and player personnel offices, meeting rooms, medical/rehab areas and locker rooms, giving the club one of the NFL's top training complexes in the Ochsner Sports Performance Center.

Prior to arriving in New Orleans, Loomis spent 15 years with the Seattle Seahawks, including as executive vice president from 1992-98. He joined the Seahawks in October, 1983, was promoted to vice president/finance in 1990 and to Executive Vice President in 1992.

A native of Eugene, Ore., Loomis has a degree in accounting from the University of Oregon and a Master's Degree in Sports Administration from Wichita State University.

Married to Melanie, Loomis has four children: Alex, Katherine, Sam and Lucy.

SEAN PAYTON

HEAD COACH

Since he was hired as head coach of the New Orleans Saints in 2006, Sean Payton has established himself as one of the most successful coaches in the NFL. Payton has led the Saints to seven playoff berths, five NFC South division titles and in 2009 captured the franchise's first World Championship with a 31-17 win over the Indianapolis Colts in Super Bowl XLIV.

Payton's 126 combined regular season and postseason wins in his NFL head coaching career are tied for the 31st most in NFL history. He has a 126-80 overall record (.612), including an 8-6 postseason mark (.571) after the franchise had won only one playoff game prior to his arrival. Payton holds the club's top win total and winning percentage for a head coach. In all, Payton-led teams have claimed five division championships and recorded seven seasons with ten-or-more wins.

As Payton enters the 2019 campaign he continues to represent the Saints as the model of stability not only within the NFC South and NFC, as he is the longest tenured head coach within the division and conference, but also within the NFL as only New England's Bill Belichick (2000) has been with his team longer. Payton is also one of just seven active coaches to lead a team to a Super Bowl victory. The others are Belichick, Seattle's Pete Carroll, Oakland's Jon Gruden (with Tampa Bay in 2002), Baltimore's John Harbaugh, Philadelphia's Doug Pederson and Pittsburgh's Mike Tomlin.

Payton's presided over the NFL's most prolific offense since his arrival, leading the league in net yards per game in 2006, 2008, 2009, 2011, 2014 and 2016, and finishing first in scoring in 2008 and 2009. These are the only six times the Saints have led the NFL in offense. Ranking in the top ten offensively every season since Payton arrived, the Saints have the third-longest streak (13 seasons) in the NFL since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger. In team history, the Saints have scored at least 45 points on 24 separate occasions with 20 of these outputs occurring under Payton's watch, including three times in 2018. Defensively, New Orleans has finished in the top five twice (2010 and 2013). He has also sent a total of 52 selections to the Pro Bowl and earned the honor of coaching the NFC squad following the 2006 and 2017 seasons.

In 2018, Payton led the Saints to back-to-back division titles for the first time in franchise history, as New Orleans captured the NFC South crown with a 13-3 record, including 7-1 on the road, capturing homefield advantage for the post-season, making his five division titles fourth among active head coaches. The Black and Gold excelled on offense, defense and special teams under Payton's leadership in advancing to the NFC Championship game for the first time since 2009. The offense ranked first in the NFL in rushing touchdowns (26), third in scoring (31.5 ppg.) and sixth in rushing (126.6 ypg.). New Orleans' 61 touchdowns were tied for second-most in the league, while the signal-callers' seven interceptions, a franchise-low, were tied for second-fewest. The defense ranked second in opponent rushing yards per game (80.2 avg.) and opponent yards per carry (3.6 avg.) and tied for fifth in sacks (49). The Saints led the NFL in net punting average (43.2), while the coverage units' 60 punt return yards surrendered was a league-low and the fifth-lowest total since 1978.

QB Drew Brees completed 364-of-489 passes (74.4%) for 3,992 yards, 32 touchdowns, only five interceptions and a league-best and career-high 115.7 rating, becoming the NFL's all-time completions and passing yardage leader. Brees' completion percentage broke his own NFL record from 2017. His five picks were his lowest total as a Saint. WR Michael Thomas shattered the club records in receptions and receiving yardage, posting an NFL-best 125 catches for 1,405 yards and nine touchdowns. RB Alvin Kamara had a club-best 1,592 total yards from scrimmage, tied the club record with 18 touchdowns and set a team mark with 14 rushing. DE Cameron Jordan led the Saints with 12 sacks and CB Marshon Lattimore had a club-best five takeaways in the regular season, followed by two interceptions in the NFC Divisional Playoff win over Philadelphia. On special teams, P Thomas Morstead had a league-best 43.2 net punting average and K Wil Lutz drilled a club-record 26 consecutive field goals. A club-record eight Saints were named to the NFC Pro Bowl squad: T Terron Armstead, Brees, Jordan, Kamara, G Andrus Peat, Thomas, C Max Unger and G Larry Warford.

The 2017 Saints produced an 11-5 regular season record, producing their first playoff berth since 2013, behind a squad that led by Brees offensively and Jordan defensively, featured seven players selected to the Pro Bowl, previously tied for the most in club history and four draft picks selected to the PFWA All-Rookie Team, two more than any other club. In Kamara and Lattimore, the 2017 Saints were the first team to have both the Associated Press NFL Offensive Rookie of the Year and Defensive Rookie of the Year since 1967. New Orleans, one of three NFC South teams to make the postseason, upended Carolina (11-5) and Atlanta (10-6) to finish first in the division and advanced to the Divisional Playoff round after capturing a 31-26 Wild Card victory over the Panthers in the Mercedes-Benz Superdome. The Saints' bid to reach the NFC Championship game under Payton was cut short in Minnesota, where New Orleans fell to the Vikings 29-24, after coming back from a 17-0 halftime deficit to hold a 24-23 fourth quarter lead during a thrilling battle.

Offensively, New Orleans was the only team to rank in the top five in the NFL in both rushing yards per game (129.4) and net passing yards per game (261.8), while giving up only 20 sacks, the second lowest total in the league and turning the ball over a franchise-low 18 times. Brees was selected to his club-record tenth Pro Bowl as a Saint as he completed 386-of-536 passes (72.0%) with 23 touchdowns, eight interceptions and a 103.9 rating. Mark Ingram II, Kamara and Thomas provided additional highlights on offense. Kamara led the team with 1,544 total yards from scrimmage, seventh in the NFL, as he carried 120 times for 728 yards with eight touchdowns and led NFL running backs in receiving yardage with 82 grabs for 826 yards and five touchdowns. His 6.1 yards per carry led the NFL. Adding a 106-yard kickoff return for a touchdown in Week 17, the longest play in club history, he set the club rookie record for touchdowns (14). Ingram ranked second on the club with 1,540 total yards from scrimmage as he and Kamara became the first running back duo in NFL history to each reach 1,500 yards. Ingram led the team in rushing with 230 carries for a career-high 1,124 yards and career-best 12 touchdowns. Thomas set what was a club record with 104 receptions for 1,245 yards and five scores. Brees, Ingram, Kamara, Thomas and Warford were named to the Pro Bowl.

The Saints defense saw improvement in virtually every major statistical category. New Orleans moved up ten spots in total defense, including from 32nd to 15th against the pass. After ranking 31st in opponent points per game in 2016, New Orleans moved up to tenth in 2017 (20.4 ppg.). Led by Jordan, a first-team Associated Press All-Pro who posted a career-high 13 sacks, New Orleans racked up 42 takedowns (tied for seventh in the NFL). Lattimore, who led NFL rookies with five interceptions, joined Jordan as a Pro Bowl selection.

On special teams, New Orleans ranked sixth in the NFL in kickoff return average (22.9), as Kamara brought back the team's first kickoff for a touchdown since 2009 and Lutz tied the single-season franchise record with 31 field goals.

In 2016, Payton had the Saints in playoff contention right until Week 16 despite season-ending injuries to four Week One starters. Rebounding from a 0-3 start, the Saints won four of their next five contests to get right back in the middle of the postseason picture.

Payton accomplished the balancing act of adding youth to his squad while keeping the Saints in the thick of the playoff hunt, which would pay off with a breakthrough campaign in 2017. He nurtured the on-field growth of rookie and second-year players, including S Vonn Bell, Lutz, DT David Onyemata, Peat, DT Sheldon Rankins and Thomas, each of who have played significant roles for an emerging team. He also fostered impressive production from veteran players such as Brees, Ingram, Jordan, LB Craig Robertson, T Zach Strief and Unger.

The offense finished first in the NFL for the sixth time under Payton's direction

PLAY IT FORWARD

Head Coach Sean Payton launched the Play It Forward Foundation in 2008 to raise funds and awareness to help families in need in the areas of health, education and social welfare. Since then, it has also served as a catalyst for various nonprofit organizations to improve the quality of life for local families in need, as well as support disadvantaged and disabled individuals through educational-based initiatives, increased and improved health care support systems and social welfare through research, education and professional services.

The foundation has held four Black & Gold Gala fundraisers at the Mercedes-Benz Superdome. Legendary figures such as John Besh, Jimmy Buffett, Sammy Kershaw, Darius Rucker and Irma Thomas have lent their support, serving as honorary chairs. Benefactors of these events have included Brad Pitts' Make it Right NOLA, Blaine Kern's First Responder's Fund, the Dr. Phil Foundation, Feed the Children and Baskets of Hope. The multiple approach has advanced the mission of enriching lives and strengthening the New Orleans community and Gulf South.

In 2011, the foundation hosted a fundraiser in Lafayette, partnering with Feed the Children and Protect Our Coastline. Overall more than two million dollars have been raised through these events to deserving local causes. In 2009, the foundation hosted a golf tournament, the Celebrity Kid's Classic, which raised thousands of dollars to benefit children's charities throughout Greater New Orleans.

(426.0 ypg.), leading the league in passing (317.1 ypg.), third down conversion rate (48.6), first downs (395) and yards after the catch (2,439). The offense was led by Brees, who completed 471-of-673 passes (70.0%) for 5,208 yards with 37 touchdowns and a 101.7 passer rating, leading the NFL in passing yardage for the seventh time and surpassing 5,000 yards for the fifth time. Ingram became the first Saint with 1,000 yards rushing (1,043) since 2006, Thomas, who set club rookie receiving records with a team-high 92 grabs for 1,137 yards with nine touchdowns, combined with fellow wideout Brandin Cooks (1,173 yards) to give New Orleans only the second offense in NFL history that featured a 5,000-yard passer, a 1,000-yard rusher and two 1,000-yard receivers.

Defensively, a young unit moved in the right direction, surrendering only 90.6 rushing yards per game, and ranking sixth in the NFL over the final 13 weeks of the season, allowing under 100 yards rushing in eight games, the fewest in a single season since 2013 (seven). Jordan both started every game up front for the Saints and led the team with eight sacks. Robertson, signed in the offseason, opened all 15 games he appeared in and posted a career-high and team-high 131 tackles. Rankins posted four sacks in nine contests. Bell led the secondary with 98 stops.

After a slow start to the 2015 campaign, a team that featured 17 players who had not appeared in a regular season contest prior to the season opener won three of their last four games and finished 7-9, making strides in all phases. A high powered, quick-striking offense held its place among the elite in the NFL as the Saints finished second in the NFL in total net yards per game (403.8) and first in net passing yards per game (310.6), third down conversion rate (47.7%) and first downs (381). While maintaining their explosive profile, the offense reduced their turnovers from 30 in 2014 to only 19 in 2015. Brees completed 428-of-627 passes (68.3%) for an NFL-best 4,870 yards, 32 touchdowns and a 101.0 passer rating. Cooks enjoyed a breakout campaign, leading the team with 84 receptions for 1,138 yards with nine touchdowns.

Defensively, the Saints had six players with no prior NFL experience start games for the club in 2015 and the development showed towards the end of the season when they surrendered under 20 points in two of their final four contests. Of the club's 21 defensive takeaways, nine were by players in their first year. Jordan reached double-digit sacks for the second time in his career and represented the Saints at the Pro Bowl.

An opportunistic special teams unit scored two touchdowns, their most since 2008 and tied for the group's most since Payton took over in 2006. They also scored the first defensive two-point conversion since the NFL rules change was instituted in 2015, blocked three kicks and booted two game-winning field goals.

The 2014 Saints finished 7-9, but rebounded from a 2-4 start to win three games against playoff teams and captured their last four contests away from home to finish at least .500 on the road for the first time since 2011, ending the campaign half a game out of first place in the NFC South. New Orleans finished first in the NFL in net yards per game (411.4), third down efficiency (48.3%), first downs (395) and opponent punt return average (4.1). Four Saints (Brees, G Jahri Evans, TE Jimmy Graham and Ingram) were selected to the Pro Bowl. Brees tied for first in the NFL in passing yardage (4,952).

SCORING EXPLOSION

The three highest-scoring games in club history have occurred on Payton's watch since he arrived.

SINGLE-GAME POINTS SCORED IN SAINTS HISTORY

In 2013, Payton guided the Saints back to the postseason with an 11-5 mark, finishing 8-0 at home for the second time in three seasons. Ranking fourth in the NFL both on offense (399.4 ypg.) and defense (305.7 ypg.), New Orleans was one of the league's most balanced clubs as they were the only team to rank in the top five in both categories. The defensive improvement of 134.4 net yards per game from 2012 was the biggest by a club since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger. In opponent points per game, after surrendering 28.4 in 2012, the Saints gave up only 19.0 in 2013 as they improved in the league rankings from 31st to fourth. After reaching the playoffs for the fourth time in five seasons, Payton led New Orleans to the franchise's first road postseason victory with a 26-24 win at Philadelphia in the Wild Card round. Five players (Brees, Evans, Graham, G Ben Grubbs and Jordan) were selected to the Pro Bowl.

In 2011, the Saints went to the playoffs for the third consecutive season and captured their third NFC South title with a 13-3 record, tying a club record for regular season victories first set in 2009. It was the first time that the club has had at least 11 wins in three straight campaigns. Taking advantage of the Mercedes-Benz Superdome's environment, the Saints posted an undefeated 8-0 record at their home stadium for the first time. With five road victories, the Saints also enjoyed another first in posting winning records at visiting stadiums in three consecutive seasons. In fact, two of the top three road campaigns in team history (7-1 in 2009 and 2018) have come under Payton. His regular season road winning percentage (.552) is tops in club history.

Payton oversaw a record-setting year on offense for the Saints in 2011, as New Orleans set an NFL single-season mark with 7,474 net yards, while also posting a team-record 547 points, then the fourth-highest total all-time. Brees set NFL single-season records for completions (468) and completion percentage (71.2%) and what was then a mark for yardage (5,476). The team set NFL records for total net yards (7,474), completions (472), third down conversion rate (56.7%) and fewest fumbles (6), while also setting what were then league marks for net passing yards (5,347) and first downs (416). A reconfigured offensive line with three new starters surrendered only 24 sacks, tied for the second-lowest total in the league. Five players represented the team at the Pro Bowl.

In 2010, Payton led the Saints to their second straight postseason appearance with an 11-5 record. New Orleans converted an NFL-best 48.8% of their third down attempts and ranked sixth in the NFL in total yards (372.5 ypg.). In addition, the team finished third in passing (277.6 ypg.). The Saints finished fifth in the NFL with 351 first downs. The offensive line gave up only 26 sacks, which was the NFL's fifth-lowest total. Five Saints were Pro Bowl selections.

Defensively, the team took a big step forward, making the jump from the 25th ranked total defense in 2009 to fourth overall (306.3 ypg.) in 2010. It marked the first time since 1997 that they ranked among the league's top five. Most significant was a jump in pass defense, moving from 26th (235.6 ypg.) in 2009 to fourth (193.9 ypg.) in 2010. The club moved up from 20th to seventh (19.2 ppg) in opponent points per game. The defense also significantly improved their opponent third down conversion ranking from 14th (38.0%) to fifth (34.5%).

In 2009, en route to the Super Bowl XLIV title, Payton guided the Saints to the team's second NFC South title in four seasons with a 13-3 record. Along the way the Saints set a franchise-record for most regular season wins in a season (13). Their 16 overall victories were the most in the club's history. The Saints also posted the franchise's longest winning streak and best start when they won their first 13 contests. Payton once again was named as the top head coach in the NFL by numerous media outlets and recognized football chapters.

The Saints finished as the NFL's top-ranked offense (sixth in rushing and fourth in passing) for the second straight year. An opportunistic defense recorded 26 interceptions with an NFL-leading five returned for touchdowns. New Orleans also ranked second in the league in opponent red zone touchdown percentage (39.3%). The Saints set what were then team records in scoring (510) and touchdowns (64) and battled through the postseason with victories over Arizona (NFC Divisional Playoff) and Minnesota (NFC Championship) en route to Super Bowl XLIV. Seven players were named to the Pro Bowl for the first time in franchise history.

In 2008, the Saints ranked first in the NFL in offense and set what were then team records for total yards (6,571), net passing yards (4,977) and first downs (354), also tying what was then a team record for single-game scoring in a 51-29 win over Green Bay. The offensive line surrendered a franchise-low 13 sacks.

In 2007, the Saints endured injuries and a slow start, but put together a four-game winning streak to get back into playoff contention. New Orleans finished fourth in the NFL in total offense while also holding nine opponents to 17 points or less.

Payton scrapped the traditional timetable for rebuilding a club in 2006. In his opening season as a head coach, the Saints jumped out to a 3-0 record - a first in team history, equaling the team's win total from the previous year - and clinched the NFC South title before the regular season finale. New Orleans led the NFL in total offense, went to the postseason for the first time since 2000 and advanced to the NFC Championship for the first time. When the 2006 season came to a close, Payton was voted the Coach of the Year by the AP, Pro Football Weekly/Pro Football Writers of America, The Sporting News and the Maxwell Club. He and his staff coached the NFC squad in the Pro Bowl.

Payton was hired as the 14th head coach in Saints history on Jan. 18, 2006 after serving as a member of the Dallas Cowboys coaching staff from 2003-05 under 2013 Pro Football Hall of Fame inductee Bill Parcells. Prior to his final season with the Cowboys, Payton was promoted to assistant head coach/passing game coordinator and was responsible for the team's play-calling after serving as assistant head coach/quarterbacks from 2003-04. In 2005, the Cowboys tied for second in the NFC with 318 first downs. When he arrived, Dallas had ranked 31st in passing the previous year but immediately improved to 17th.

Payton went to Dallas following four years with the New York Giants (1999-2002), the last three as offensive coordinator after spending his first season as quarterbacks coach. He solidified his reputation as one of the game's brightest offensive minds in his first full season as coordinator, when the Giants captured the NFC title and went to Super Bowl XXXV. New York scored 328 points - the club's highest total since 1990 - and finished 13th in the NFL in offense.

Payton was first assigned play-calling duties prior to a game against the New York Jets on Dec. 5, 1999. The Giants responded with 41 points and 490 yards - both season highs - and he retained that assignment over the final five games. Appointed the offensive coordinator the following season, over the next three years the Giants passing attack continually improved, ranking 13th in the NFL in 2000, tied for eighth in 2001 and sixth in 2002.

In 2002 the Giants also finished sixth overall in total offense, the team's highest ranking since 1985. In the previous decade, New York hadn't ranked above 20th.

Prior to joining the Giants, he spent 1997 and 1998 as Philadelphia's quarterbacks coach. In 1997, the Eagles ranked second in passing and third in total offense in the NFC.

Payton has had particular success tutoring quarterbacks. Brees has thrived since arriving in New Orleans, as he holds or has tied a total of 26 club career, single-season and single-game records, 12 of them NFL marks. Since signing with the Saints, Brees has completed 5,461 of 7,974 attempts (68.5%) for 62,089 yards with 440 touchdowns and a 100.6 rating. He has led the NFL in passing yardage a league-record seven times and in completion percentage five times.

Since his first year as a play-caller in 2000, every starting passer under Payton's guidance has thrown for over 3,000 yards. In addition to Brees since 2006, the three starters he worked with in Dallas - Drew Bledsoe in 2005, Vinny Testaverde in 2004 and Quincy Carter in 2003 - all surpassed the milestone. While in New York, Giants QB Kerry Collins had 4,073 yards in 2002.

Payton has also served as a driving force in the NFL, being appointed to the NFL Competition Committee in 2017. The committee is instrumental in guiding the league through rule changes and ways to improve the game.

Payton wrapped two coaching stints at San Diego State University (1988-89 and 1992-93) around a stop at Indiana State (1990-91). During his second stretch with the Aztecs, Payton was running backs coach, working with Heisman Trophy runner-up Marshall Faulk before becoming quarterbacks coach.

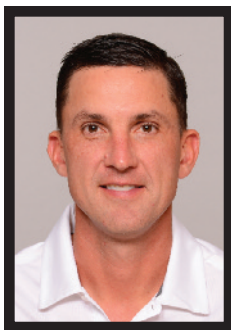

Following the 1993 season, Payton moved to Miami (Ohio) (1994-95) where he was quarterbacks coach. He spent 1996 as quarterbacks coach at Illinois before entering the NFL with Philadelphia.

Payton earned a bachelor's degree in communications at Eastern Illinois, where as a quarterback he had 10,665 passing yards, then the third-highest total in NCAA Division I-AA history. The three-time AP All-American selection had professional stints with Chicago of the Arena Football League, Ottawa of the Canadian Football League and the Chicago Bears in 1987. Payton was inducted into the Eastern Illinois Hall of Fame in September of 2000 and had his jersey retired in a ceremony in September of 2010. He received an honorary doctorate from his alma mater in 2013.

Payton was born Dec. 29, 1963 in San Mateo, Calif., and raised in Naperville, Ill., Payton has a daughter, Meghan and a son, Connor.

DENNIS ALLEN

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

Now in his second stint in New Orleans, Dennis Allen enters his fourth full season as the team's defensive coordinator in his tenth campaign with the club after he was re-hired by Saints Head Coach Sean Payton in 2015. Allen's resume includes 23 years of coaching experience, including the last 17 in the National Football League. One of the most respected defensive minds in the NFL, Allen has led a New Orleans defense that has experienced a significant rise in most team statistical categories since 2016, while also developing a promising group of young defenders, mixed with veteran leaders and shrewd free agent acquisitions.

In 2018, the Saints boasted the second-best run defense in the NFL, allowing just 80.2 yards per game and 3.6 yards per carry. The defense also collared 49 sacks, which tied for fifth in the league. The New Orleans defense held its opponents to 20 points or less in ten games and had a six-game streak of keeping opponents under 20 for the first time since 2001. DE Cameron Jordan was selected to the Pro Bowl as an Associated Press All-Pro in a season where he posted 12 sacks. On the interior, DT Sheldon Rankins posted eight sacks in a breakout campaign, the most takedowns by a Saints interior defender since 2000. DE Marcus Davenport was a PFWA All-Rookie selection, adding 4.5 sacks. LB Demario Davis, in his first season with the club, became only the fourth player in Saints history to record 110 tackles and five sacks in a season. CB Marshon Lattimore led the team with five takeaways in the regular season and added two more in the club's postseason win over Philadelphia.

In 2017, Allen led a Saints defense that finished third in the league in interceptions (20), tied for seventh in sacks (42) and ranked tenth in opponent points per game (20.4 ppg.) after ranking 31st in 2016. Away from home, New Orleans surrendered only 18.3 points per game, tied for sixth in the NFL, with their 146 road points given up tied for the fifth-lowest total by the club since the start of a 16-game schedule in 1978. Allen oversaw a defense that featured first-team All-Pro Jordan who posted a career-high 13 sacks and Lattimore, who led NFL rookies with five interceptions and garnered Associated Press Defensive Rookie of the Year honors, as both defenders earned Pro Bowl trips. Lattimore was the second rookie under Allen's tutelage to capture league Rookie of the Year honors. Rookie S Marcus Williams, the club's second round draft pick, joined Lattimore as a PFWA All-Rookie selection, tying for second among league rookies with four picks.

In 2016, a young Saints defensive unit took several strides in the right direction, surrendering only 90.6 rushing yards per game, ranked sixth in the NFL over the final 13 weeks of the season. In fact, New Orleans allowed under 100 yards rushing in eight games on the season, the fewest in a single season since they gave up seven in 2013. Jordan led the team with 7.5 sacks. LB Craig Robertson started all 15 games he appeared in and filled up the stat sheet with a team-high and career-high 131 tackles, one sack, one interception, five passes defended and two fumble recoveries, staying on the field for nearly every defensive snap.

After starting the 2015 season as the club's senior defensive assistant, Allen assumed coordinator duties in Week 11. As New Orleans rallied to win three of their final four contests, Allen's unit contributed to finishing strong as the defense surrendered 34.3 total net yards per game below the overall season average, including 24.3 fewer yards per game in stopping the run. New Orleans also held opponents to a season-low 17 points in two of the final four contests. Jordan was selected to his second Pro Bowl, as he recorded double-digit sacks (10) for the second time in his career.

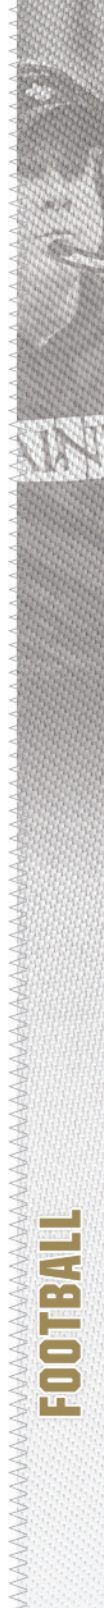

Allen served as the head coach of the Oakland Raiders from 2012-14. In his second season, he guided a team that made significant improvement in several areas. Offensively, the Raiders ranked 12th in the NFL in rushing, improving 16 spots in league rankings from 2012 and sixth in yards per rush (4.6), improving 21 places in league rankings despite starting an NFL-high eight offensive line combinations due to injury. The defense replaced nine starters, yet improved in several categories. The defense recorded 38 sacks, 13 more than 2012, and tied for second in the NFL with 15 different players getting to the quarterback. The rush defense improved five spots from 18th in the NFL in 2012 to 13th in 2013, as they limited opposing offenses to just five runs of 20-or-more yards, tied for the fewest in the league, and kept opponents to less than two yards per carry three times. On special teams, the Raiders moved from the NFL's bottom-third to first overall in opponent gross punting (41.7), ranked third in opponent net punting (37.0) and fourth in opponent kickoff returns (20.4).

Allen coached the first four games of the 2014 season for the Raiders, during which he helped usher in a pair of rookies that went on to enjoy impressive campaigns in QB Derek Carr and LB Khalil Mack. The club's pass defense ranked fourth in the NFL.

In 2011, Allen served as defensive coordinator of the Denver Broncos. He led a defense that helped the Broncos win the AFC West division crown and advance to the AFC Divisional round with an AFC Wild Card game victory. The Broncos improved 12 spots over the previous year in overall defensive ranking and bettered their points allowed eight spots. The defense produced four Pro Bowl selections as rookie LB Von Miller joined CB Champ Bailey, S Brian Dawkins and DE Elvis Dumervil on the AFC squad. Miller tied the team's rookie record with 11.5 sacks en route to AP NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year honors and Dumervil also thrived under Allen, rebounding from injury to register 9.5 takedowns. The Broncos' 41 sacks as a team marked the unit's most since 2000.

During Allen's previous five-year tenure in New Orleans, he first served as assistant defensive line coach (2006-07) before being promoted to secondary coach (2008-10).

He was a part of a defensive coaching staff that engineered significant improvement from 2009-10 when the club went 24-8 in the regular season, qualified for the playoffs both times and captured Super Bowl XLIV. Under Allen's direction in 2010, the Saints secondary allowed an NFL-low 13 touchdown passes, while New Orleans ranked fourth in both opponent net yards per game (306.3) and pass defense (193.9 ypg.). They also registered top five rankings in opponent third down efficiency (34.5%) and opponent passer rating (75.3). S Roman Harper was selected to his second consecutive Pro Bowl, posting 100 tackles and three sacks, and CB Jabari Greer recorded two interceptions with one brought back for a touchdown.

In 2009, Allen tutored a secondary that played a key role in helping the Saints to the club's first Super Bowl victory. A revamped unit accounted for an NFL-high six interception returns for touchdowns and totaled 22 picks on the season with two of the four starters being selected to the Pro Bowl. Greer returned one pick for a touchdown. Harper led the unit with a career-high 127 tackles and added 1.5 sacks and two forced fumbles while being selected to his first Pro Bowl. CB Tracy Porter picked off Brett Favre and Peyton Manning in the fourth quarter in consecutive postseason contests, with his famous Super Bowl XLIV interception being brought back for a touchdown.

While serving as assistant defensive line coach from 2006-07, Allen helped develop a unit that ranked as one of the strengths of the Saints' defense. During that stretch, the defensive front combined for 48.5 sacks, 10 forced fumbles and 10 fumble recoveries and DE Will Smith was voted to the Pro Bowl in 2006.

Allen joined the Saints after a four-year stint with the Atlanta Falcons, where he spent his final two years as defensive assistant/quality control with an emphasis on working with the defensive line. Over the previous two seasons, he was in charge of defensive quality control while helping tutor the secondary.

Over his last two years in Atlanta, the Falcons' defense was paced by the play of the front four. In 2004, Atlanta led the NFL for the first time in club history with 48 sacks and the unit sent DE Patrick Kerney to the Pro Bowl. In 2005 DT Rod Coleman represented the club in the Pro Bowl and the Falcons notched 37 sacks.

In 2002, Allen's first year with the Falcons, he assisted in coaching the defensive backfield. Atlanta improved to 16th against the pass after ranking 30th the year before, and tied for third in the NFL with 24 interceptions.

Allen worked as the secondary coach for the University of Tulsa (2000-01) before heading to the NFL. Prior to his stint at Tulsa, Allen was on the coaching staff for four years (1996-99) at his alma mater, Texas A&M, as a graduate assistant working primarily with the school's secondary.

A native of Hurst, Texas, Allen earned four letters for Texas A&M as a safety from 1992-95 and started the final 21 games of his career. A highlight was his fourth-quarter interception that clinched an 18-9 victory over Texas in 1993, sending the Aggies to their third-straight Cotton Bowl. He collected Southwest Conference Defensive Player of the Week honors after intercepting two passes in a 36-14 win over Oklahoma in 1994.

COACHING STAFF

Allen was signed as an undrafted free agent by the Buffalo Bills and competed in their training camp in 1996. Allen's late father, Grady, played at Texas A&M and was a linebacker for the Falcons from 1968-72.

DAN CAMPBELL

ASSISTANT HEAD COACH/TIGHT ENDS

Dan Campbell enters his fourth season as the New Orleans Saints' assistant head coach/tight ends, bringing 20 years of NFL experience, 11 as a player with four teams and nine as a coach. He joined the Saints in 2016 after spending six seasons on the Miami Dolphins coaching staff, including serving as the club's interim head coach for the final 12 contests in 2015.

Last season, Campbell coached Benjamin Watson who contributed by catching 35 passes for 400 yards and two touchdowns, third on the club in receiving. Also, Josh Hill caught 16 passes for 185 yards and one touchdown under the tutelage of Campbell. The duo also contributed as blockers to the NFL's sixth-ranked rushing offense. Garrett Griffin was elevated to the active roster from the practice squad in the postseason and caught a touchdown in the NFC Championship.

In 2017, three different players made starts at tight end with Hill (10), Michael Hoomanawanui (10) and Coby Fleener (1), where in addition to their pass-catching abilities, blocked for a rushing offense that finished fifth in the NFL. Hill tied a career-high with 16 receptions in the regular season then added six catches for 103 yards and one touchdown in the playoffs. Fleener registered 22 receptions for 295 yards and two touchdowns in 11 games.

In 2016, Campbell juggled several injuries at the position with Hoomanawanui missing the entire season and Hill missing seven contests. Despite the setbacks, the New Orleans tight ends group still played a key role in an offense that ranked first in the NFL with 426.0 total net yards per game and second in scoring with 29.3 points per game. Fleener, in his first season with New Orleans, appeared in 16 games with eight starts, catching 50 passes for 631 yards (12.6 avg.) with three touchdowns, while adding one rush for two yards and one TD.

In 2015, Campbell took over a 1-3 Dolphins club that had lost three consecutive contests and immediately helped the team win their first two games under his supervision and finished 5-7, including a 20-10 win over the New England Patriots in the season finale. After Campbell took the head coaching reigns, Miami improved eight spots in the NFL rushing yards per game rankings with RB Lamar Miller gaining 741 of his 872 yards on the ground and all eight rushing touchdowns, finishing the season with 1,269 total yards from scrimmage and 10 touchdowns. Five Dolphins were selected to the Pro Bowl. QB Ryan Tannehill became the first Dolphins signal-caller to pass for at least 4,000 yards in consecutive seasons since Dan Marino (1984-86).

Prior to taking over Miami's interim duties, Campbell had tutored the Dolphins tight ends since 2011, initially joining the team in 2010 as a coaching intern following the conclusion of his 11-year NFL playing career. In 2014, Campbell's tight end unit was led by Charles Clay who posted 58 receptions for 605 yards and three touchdowns, while blocking for Miller's first 1,000 yard season, as he and Tannehill combined to become the first duo in franchise history to produce a 1,000-yard rusher and 4,000-yard passer in a season. Fellow tight end Dion Sims recorded career highs in receptions (24), receiving yards (284) and touchdowns (two). In 2013, under Campbell's watch, Clay finished with 69 receptions for 759 yards with six touchdowns. In 2012, Campbell's unit was paced by Anthony Fasano, who posted a team-leading five touchdown receptions.

Campbell joined the Dolphins after 11 years of playing experience with the New York Giants (1999-2002), Dallas Cowboys (2003-05), Detroit Lions (2006-08) and Saints (2009). A third round selection of the Giants in the 1999 NFL draft, the former tight end appeared in a total of 114 games with 75 starts and caught 91 passes for 934 yards and 11 touchdowns.

PETE CARMICHAEL

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR

Pete Carmichael's in his 11th season as Saints offensive coordinator after tutoring the quarterbacks his first three years with the club. Throughout this time, he has been a key figure in the planning and preparations of an offensive attack that has been ranked first in the NFL in yardage in six of the last 13 seasons and in the top eight each campaign. During Carmichael's tenure on the New Orleans coaching staff, the club's 13-year streak of finishing in the top 10 in offense is the third-longest since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger.

In 2018, Carmichael guided a Saints offense that finished third in the NFL in points per game (31.5) en route to a 13-3 record and an NFC South Division championship for the second consecutive season. The Saints also finished tied for third with the fewest giveaways (16), ranked sixth in the NFL in rushing yards per game (126.6), eighth in total offense (379.2) and led the NFL in rushing touchdowns (26). Quarterback Drew Brees finished the 2018 regular season surpassing his prior NFL record for completion percentage (74.4), leading the league with a career-high 115.7 passer rating to go along with 32 touchdowns and only five interceptions in a season when he became the league's all-time completions and passing yardage leader. Also under Carmichael's tutelage, running back Alvin Kamara ranked seventh in the NFL in total yards from scrimmage with a club-best 1,592 yards and ranked second in the league with 18 touchdowns, which tied the franchise-best, earning Pro Bowl honors in the process. Wide receiver Michael Thomas shattered the club's receptions and receiving yardage records with a league-best 125 grabs for 1,405 yards and nine touchdowns. Brees (second-team) and Thomas (first-team) were Associated Press All-Pros in addition to being selected as Pro Bowl starters. The offensive line surrendered only 20 sacks for the second consecutive season, the league's second-lowest total. Left tackle Terron Armstead, guards Andrus Peat and Larry Warford and center Max Unger were named to the Pro Bowl, while right tackle Ryan Ramczyk was an AP second-team All-Pro.

In 2017, Carmichael coordinated a balanced offense that finished second in the NFL (391.2 ypg.), with the Saints being the only club to be ranked in the top five both in passing (fifth-261.8) and rushing (fifth-129.4). The Saints also finished first in the NFL in yards per play (6.3), passing yards per play (8.1), fourth down efficiency (80.0%) and yards after the catch (2,401). Brees set the NFL single-season record for completion percentage (72.0%), completing 386-of-536 passes for 4,334 yards and 23 touchdowns, eight interceptions, his lowest total as a Saint and a 103.9 passer rating. Running back Mark Ingram II set career-highs with 1,124 yards rushing, 12 rushing touchdowns, 58 receptions and 1,540 total yards from scrimmage. Kamara set a league record for rookie running backs with 826 receiving yards on 81 receptions and five touchdowns, while he led the NFL by averaging 6.1 yards per carry on 120 carries for 728 yards with eight touchdowns, as he led the club with 1,554 total yards from scrimmage and was selected by the AP as the NFL Offensive Rookie of the Year and as a second-team All-Pro (flex). The 3,094 combined total yards from scrimmage from Ingram and Kamara was the second-most by an NFL running back duo since the start of a 16-game season in 1978. Thomas set the club single-season receiving record with 104 receptions for 1,245 yards. The 4,339 combined total yards from scrimmage by Ingram, Kamara and Thomas, was the highest total by a skill position trio in club history. The offensive line allowed just 20 sacks, the second-fewest in the NFL, even though they had to open with six different starting combinations. Brees, Ingram, Kamara, Thomas and Warford were selected to the Pro Bowl.

In 2016, the Saints offense ranked first in the NFL (426.0 ypg.), with the club also finishing first in passing offense (317.1 ypg.), third down efficiency (48.6), first downs (395) and yards after catch (2,439). The club posted the third-highest scoring season in club history, ranking second in the NFL (29.3 ppg.). The team's 6,816 total yards gained on the season was the seventh-highest total in league history. With Thomas and wide receiver Brandin Cooks each recording 1,000-yard receiving seasons, Ingram posting a 1,000-yard rushing season and Brees reaching 5,000-yards passing, the New Orleans offense became the second one in NFL history that featured a 5,000-yard passer, a 1,000-yard rusher and two 1,000-yard receivers, joining the 2013 Denver Broncos. Brees reached 5,000 passing yards for an NFL-record fifth time while his passing yardage total (5,208) was the second-highest in his career and the fourth-highest of all-time, leading the league for an NFL-record seventh time. He also set an NFL single-season record for completions (471), as he was named to the Pro Bowl. Ingram ran for 1,043 yards, becoming the first 1,000-yard rusher in club history since 2006 (Deuce McAllister). Cooks (1,173) and Thomas (1,137) each eclipsed 1,100 yards receiving with Thomas setting the team single-season rookie record for receptions, receiving yardage and receiving touchdowns. Thomas finished the season leading all NFL rookies in all three categories with the receptions total second all-time for a rookie behind Anquan Boldin's 101 in 2003.

In 2015, Carmichael coordinated an offense that finished second in the NFL (403.8 ypg.), with the club finishing first in net passing yards per game (310.6), third down efficiency (47.7%) and first downs (381). Brees threw for an NFL-high 4,870 yards and 32 touchdowns with a 101.0 rating despite missing one game. Despite being sidelined the final four games, Ingram had a team-high 1,074 total yards from scrimmage. Wideouts Cooks and Willie Snead IV enjoyed breakout seasons. Cooks led the team in all three major receiving categories with 84 grabs for 1,138 yards and nine touchdowns. Snead secured a roster spot and made 69 catches for 984 yards and three touchdowns. Tight end Benjamin Watson set career-highs with 74 grabs for 825 yards, while tying a career-best with six touchdown receptions.

In 2014, Carmichael led an offense that finished first in the NFL in net yards per game (411.4), third down efficiency (48.3%) and first downs (395). Brees tied for the NFL lead in passing yardage (4,952). He also finished first in the NFL in completions (456), second in completion percentage (69.2%) and tied for fifth in touchdown passes (33). Tight end Jimmy Graham led the team in both receiving and touchdowns with 85 catches for 889 yards and ten touchdowns and Ingram led the team in rushing yards (964), total yards from scrimmage (1,109) and rushing touchdowns (nine), which was tied for third in the NFL. Four offensive Saints made the Pro Bowl: Brees, guard Jahri Evans, Graham and Ingram.

In 2013, the offense finished fourth in net yards per game (399.4), second in passing offense (307.4 ypg.), third in third down conversion percentage (43.9%), fourth in first downs (359) and second in yards after the catch (2,576). Brees, Evans, Graham and guard Ben Grubbs were selected to the Pro Bowl. Brees finished near the top of the NFL in virtually every passing category, completing 446-of-650 (68.6%) passes for 5,162 yards with 39 touchdowns and a 104.5 rating. Graham enjoyed one of the most prolific seasons for a tight end in NFL history, recording 86 receptions for 1,215 yards with a franchise-record 16 touchdowns. The 2013 Saints were also only the fifth NFL team to have four players with 65 or more catches (Graham-86, running back Pierre Thomas-77, wide receiver Marques Colston-75 and running back Darren Sproles-71), as New Orleans did so for the second consecutive season.

In 2012, Carmichael called plays for an offense that finished second in the NFL (410.9 ypg.) and third in the league in scoring (28.8 ppg.). The Saints also compiled top-five NFL rankings in red zone touchdown percentage (68.4%), third down conversion rate (44.0%) and first downs (352), supported by a line with two Pro Bowl selections (tackle Jermon Bushrod and Evans) that surrendered only 26 sacks, tied for third-lowest in the NFL. Brees threw for 5,177 yards and 43 touchdowns, both league-bests. The wideout duo of Colston and Lance Moore each reached 1,000 yards.

In 2011, the Saints produced some of the best offensive numbers in league history as the team shattered several NFL and team records. After Head Coach Sean Payton suffered a leg injury in Week Six, Carmichael took over play-calling duties. New Orleans set NFL records in completion percentage (71.3%), net passing yardage (5,347) and first downs (416) that have since been broken, while the marks for total net yards (7,474), third down conversion rate (56.7%) and fewest fumbles (6) still stand. They also set a team mark and led the league in third down conversions (118). New Orleans finished with 547 points, the fourth-highest total in NFL history, and scored at least 45 points in four regular season games and one postseason contest, including three straight outputs of at least 45. Brees enjoyed one of the most prolific seasons by a signal-caller as he completed 468-of-657 passes (71.2%) for 5,476 yards, 46 touchdowns and a 110.6 rating, breaking NFL records for yardage (since broken), completions, 300-yard passing games (13) and completion percentage (since broken). Graham had a club-record 99 receptions for 1,310 yards with 11 touchdowns. A running game that was ranked sixth in the NFL flourished behind an offensive line that featured three Pro Bowl selections (Bushrod, Evans and guard Carl Nicks), in addition to Brees and Graham.

In 2010, the Saints finished third in the NFC and sixth in the NFL after averaging 372.5 yards of total offense, finishing third in the league in passing. The unit converted 48.8% of their third down conversions and ranked fifth in the NFL with 351 first downs.

In 2009, Carmichael's first season with his new title, the Saints continued to compile impressive numbers on offense. The Saints finished in the top five in seven offensive categories, while also racking up an NFL-best 510 points. At least 45 points were scored four times, a fifth time in the postseason, with four straight outputs of at least 30. The Saints ranked first in the league with 6,461 net yards, then the third-best total in club history. The Saints' 348 first downs was the second-best total in league rankings. The Saints also finished ranked sixth in the NFL in rushing with 131.6 yards per game on 4.5 yards per carry. The offense continued to flourish in the postseason, averaging 35.6 points per game and scoring eight-of-nine times inside the red zone. Brees keyed the run, completing 70.6 percent of his passes and throwing eight touchdowns with a 117.0 passer rating. He was selected the Super Bowl XLIV MVP, as he led the Saints back from a ten-point deficit, completing 18 of his last 19 passes and engineering the fourth quarter game-winning drive.

In 2008, Carmichael's title was quarterbacks/passing game - with duties that included assisting in the pass routes, protection schemes and quarterback responsibilities. He tutored the signal callers his first three seasons with the club. In 2008, the offense went on to rank No. 1 in the NFL in passing, and Brees threw for 5,069 yards.

Carmichael has worked closely with Brees since both arrived in New Orleans in 2006, while all of the franchise's passing records have fallen. Brees has led the NFL or tied for the lead in passing yardage an NFL-record seven times, set the league record for completion percentage four times and has thrown for a club-record 440 touchdowns over the last 13 seasons.

Carmichael brings the perspective of having a wide range of coaching experiences, including working with nearly every position group on offense. With the Chargers, he assisted wide receivers coach James Lofton for an offense that ranked tenth in the NFL in 2004 and 2005. Carmichael joined the Chargers in 2002 and served as offensive assistant/quality control coach until being promoted.

In 2001, Carmichael was quality control coach for the Washington Redskins, and in 2000, he was the tight ends coach and offensive assistant for the Cleveland Browns. From 1995-99, Carmichael was the quarterbacks coach at Louisiana Tech, and during his tenure the signal-callers broke almost every school passing record. He began his coaching career as the assistant offensive line coach at the University of New Hampshire in 1994, with the Wildcats winning the Yankee Conference championship.

Born Oct. 6, 1971 in Framingham, Mass., Carmichael attended Medway (Mass.) High School where he played football and baseball. He was a four-year baseball letterman at Boston College. As a senior, Carmichael was a team captain and Most Valuable Player. He graduated with a degree in mathematics in 1994.

DAN DALRYMPLE

HEAD STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING

By designing extensive and innovative workout programs - crafted to the needs of every player as well as the demands of each position group - Head Strength & Conditioning Coach Dan Dalrymple has been a key member of the Saints organization since arriving in 2006. His responsibilities and influence both in the weight room and on the field remain constant throughout the entire year.

The efforts of Dalrymple and his staff have played a key role in the club's success over the past 13 seasons. His routines, focused on building and maintaining strength and stamina while minimizing injuries, have paid dividends for the Saints. Since 2006, New Orleans has put together 15 winning streaks of three games or more, including a franchise-record 13-game win streak in 2009 and a ten-game run in 2018. 24 players have been selected to the Pro Bowl during his tenure, 18 for the first time in their National Football League careers.

Throughout his tenure, Dalrymple's teams have traditionally finished strong. In 2009's Super Bowl XLIV Championship season, evidence of the conditioning of the club was their stamina throughout games, as they outscored opponents 139-48 in the fourth quarter, finishing first in the NFL in both points scored and allowed in the final period. He was named as the recipient of the Cybex Professional Strength and Conditioning Coach of the Year award by the Professional Football Strength and Conditioning Coaches Association and the Samson Strength and Conditioning NFL Coach of the Year award from American Football Monthly.

In 2018, the Saints captured their division in back-to-back seasons for the first time in franchise history with their third 13-win regular season campaign since 2009. In a sign of stamina, New Orleans outscored their opponents in the fourth quarter and overtime 168-83, leading the NFL in fourth quarter points per game (10.1 avg.). In addition to winning streaks of ten games and three games, the 2018 Saints were the only club in franchise history to not have a losing streak. Dalrymple was recognized for the club's accomplishments as he became only the second NFL strength coach to receive professional coach of the Year honors multiple times from the Professional Football Strength and Conditioning Coaches Association (2009 and 2018).

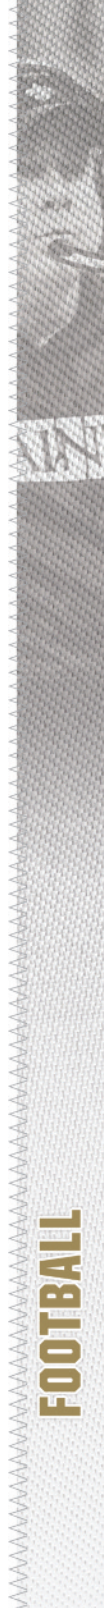

Prior to joining the Saints, Dalrymple spent the previous 17 seasons in a similar capacity at Miami University (Ohio), including the last 16 as director of athletic conditioning, a program that he built from its foundation. While the Redhawks football team was a focus of his efforts, Dalrymple and his staff created workout regimens for every athletic program. He was promoted with the additional title of assistant athletic director in 2003. At Miami, he was a coaching colleague of Saints Head Coach Sean Payton from 1994-95.

Dalrymple has been certified by the National Strength & Conditioning Association since 1991 and has been honored as a finalist for the organization's coach of the year in 1995, 1997, 1999, 2003 and 2006. He's one of only three NFL coaches in his field to be certified by the Collegiate Strength & Conditioning Coaches Association as a Master Strength & Conditioning Coach.

Dalrymple has earned two certifications for USA Weightlifting that designate him as qualified to work with athletes in Olympic weightlifting and as a sports performance specialist.

After taking over the supervision of Miami's strength and conditioning program in 1989, the football program posted a 116-72-9 record, had a streak of 12-straight winning seasons and went to bowl games in 2003 and 2004.

For the Saints, Dalrymple couples his intense work ethic and a constant evolution of his approach with a lengthy background in football.

COACHING STAFF

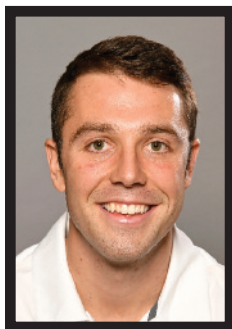

A 1988 graduate of Miami, Dalrymple was a four-year starter (1983-86) as an offensive lineman and was a first-team All-MAC selection his final two seasons, also earning honorable mention All-America accolades. He was one of three captains of the 1986 conference champion team. Dalrymple was later honored as one of five linemen on the Cincinnati Enquirer's All-20th Century Miami football team and was elected to the school's Hall of Fame in 2002.

After his college career and attending training camp with the Seattle Seahawks, Dalrymple returned to his alma mater as a student assistant coach in 1987. He served as a graduate assistant the following year before being promoted to offensive line and strength coach in 1989. He was named strength & conditioning coordinator in December of that year.

In 2011, Dalrymple co-authored his first book, "The Athletic Body Puzzle-The Guide For Parents And Coaches."

He spent the 2005-06 seasons coaching the defensive ends. His defensive ends were major contributors on a defensive unit that ranked fourth nationally. Rutgers' defense was fifth in the NCAA in both sacks and tackles for loss per game and produced first-team All-America and All-Big East defensive lineman Eric Foster, as well as second-team All-Big East defensive lineman Jamaal Westerman, both of whom played in the NFL.

Galiano began his coaching career at Dickinson College, where he worked with the outside linebackers in 2000. He spent 2001 as outside linebackers coach at the University of New Haven under Head Coach Rizzi before becoming an offensive assistant at Villanova in 2002, working primarily with the tight ends.

A three-year starter at safety for Shippensburg University, Galiano served as a tri-captain during his senior campaign. He helped lead the Raiders to three consecutive winning seasons from 1997-99. PETER GIUNTA

SENIOR DEFENSIVE ASSISTANT

Peter Giunta (pronounced GEN-ta) enters his fourth season as a Saints senior defensive assistant in 2019. He's a 40-year coaching veteran, including 28 years of experience in the NFL with three Super Bowl Championships.

In his first three seasons in New Orleans, he has collaborated with secondary coach Aaron Glenn to tutor the defensive backs that have played a pivotal role in the club's defensive improvement. Cornerback Marshon Lattimore enjoyed a breakout campaign in 2017, starting all 13 games he appeared in and leading NFL rookies with a team-high five interceptions and tying for the rookie lead with a club-best 18 passes defended as he was the youngest Saint (21 years old) ever selected to the Pro Bowl and the franchise's first AP Defensive Rookie of the Year. In 2018, Lattimore continued his development, leading the team with five takeaways in the regular season, adding two interceptions in the NFC Divisional Playoff win over Philadelphia. At the corner position opposite Lattimore in 2018, he helped Eli Apple make a successful in-season transition to the Saints after being acquired from the

New York Giants, recording three takeaways in ten games. Giunta helped develop young safeties Vonn Bell and Marcus Williams, who went from second-round draft selections in 2016 and 2017 to starters. Bell has led the secondary in tackles for three consecutive seasons, finishing with 87 stops in 2018. In 2018, Williams started all 16 games at free safety and recorded two interception returns for 100 yards and one fumble recovery.

Giunta served as the secondary/cornerbacks coach of the Giants from 2006-14, a period when New York captured two Super Bowl titles. With the Giants, he was at the forefront in the development of several young cornerbacks, while also experiencing success with veterans.

During his tenure in New York, the Salem, Mass. native was pivotal in the development of cornerbacks who contributed to the Giants winning two Super Bowls. Former LSU standout Corey Webster developed into an eight-year starter under Giunta's watch in New York and recorded 22 interceptions and four fumble recoveries in the regular season and postseason, including recording three takeaways in the 2007 playoffs all the way to a Super Bowl title. Webster's pick of a Brett Favre pass set up the Giants' game-winning field goal in overtime of the NFC Championship Game in Green Bay. In 2011, Webster opened all 20 regular season and postseason contests. Cornerback Aaron Ross, the club's first round draft pick in 2007, was inserted into the starting lineup midway through his rookie campaign and he delivered with three interceptions including one brought back for a score. Ross returned to the starting lineup in 2011 and finished tied for second on the team to Webster (six) with a career-high four picks. Most recently, Giunta was instrumental in the development of cornerback Prince Amukamara, the team's first round draft pick in 2011, who despite missing the last eight games with a biceps injury in 2014, had set a career-high with three interceptions through the first eight contests. In 2009, cornerback Terrell Thomas led the team with five interceptions, one returned for a touchdown, as New York ranked ninth in opponent net passing yards per game. Thomas was selected to the USA Today All-Joe Team.

Giunta was Kansas City's defensive backs coach from 2001-05. In 2003, safety Jerome Woods earned his first career Pro Bowl berth under his guidance, an impressive feat considering the fact that he missed the 2002 campaign with a broken leg. The Chiefs registered 25 interceptions to rank third in the NFL that season, as safety Greg Wesley and cornerback Dexter McLeon paced the team with six picks apiece.

Giunta joined the Chiefs after spending four seasons (1997-2000) with the St. Louis Rams, including the last three as that club's defensive coordinator. Giunta served as the Rams' assistant head coach under Dick Vermeil in 1998-99, after originally joining the staff as defensive backs coach in 1997.

As defensive coordinator, Giunta was responsible for the resurgence in the St. Louis defense which helped spark the club's unexpected run to a world championship in 1999. Those efforts culminated with a 13-3 regular season record and a 23-16 victory over the Tennessee Titans in Super Bowl XXXIV. Giunta's unit led the league in rush defense in 1999, allowing just 74.3 yards per game, while ranking fourth in scoring defense (15.1 ppg.) and sixth in total defense (293.6 ypg.).

COACHING STAFF

The Rams' 1999 defense led the NFC and was second in the NFL with 29 interceptions. Cornerback Todd Lyght tied for the league lead with six picks, earning his initial Pro Bowl berth in the process. St. Louis was also opportunistic, returning nine takeaways (seven interceptions and two fumbles) for touchdowns in 1999. Those turnovers were due in large part to a Rams pass rush which racked up 57.0 sacks, a figure which tied for the league lead. The sack brigade was headlined by Pro Bowl defensive end Kevin Carter, who led the NFL with 17.0 takedowns.

Giunta's long had a reputation for getting the most out of his defensive backs. In 2000, McLeon intercepted eight passes, a total surpassed only by one player. In Giunta's first season as defensive coordinator in 1998, St. Louis ranked third in the NFL in pass defense, allowing 176.9 yards per game. With Giunta serving as defensive backs coach in 1997 the Rams were second in the league with 25 interceptions, including an NFL-high nine by cornerback Ryan McNeil.

Prior to his stint with the Rams, Giunta spent two seasons as defensive backs coach for the New York Jets. In 1995, the Jets led the league in opponent net yards passing (171.3 yards per game). Giunta was instrumental in the development of Glenn, who would go on to be a three-time All-Pro and Pro Bowl selection.

Giunta entered the NFL as the defensive backs coach with the Philadelphia Eagles from 1991-94. In 1991, the Eagles defense ranked first in the league in passing defense (150.8 yards per game), rushing defense (71.0 yards per game) and total defense (221.8 yards per game). That marked just the fifth time in NFL history and the first time since 1975 that a single team led the league in all three of those defensive categories. No team has equaled that feat since the 1991 Eagles. Giunta's ten seasons in the college ranks began at Penn State (1981-83). He was a defensive assistant his first year before coaching the tight ends in his final two seasons. While he was at Penn State, the Nittany Lions won the 1982 National Championship with a 27-23 victory over Georgia in the Sugar Bowl. Penn State won three bowl games during Giunta's tenure.

Following Penn State, Giunta moved to Brown (1984-87), where he coached both the tight ends and wide receivers before becoming the offensive coordinator (1986-87). He then joined the staff at Lehigh (1988-90), where he was responsible for the tight ends and wide receivers.

After a four-year playing career as a defensive back and running back at Northeastern (1974-77), Giunta began his coaching career in Massachusetts, where he was an assistant coach at Swampscott High School from 1978-80.

PLAYING CAREER: Northeastern, 1974-77.

AARON GLENN SECONDARY

Aaron Glenn brings 22 years of NFL playing, front office and coaching experience to the Saints staff in his fourth season as an assistant in New Orleans.

In his first three seasons in New Orleans, the defensive backs have played a pivotal role in the club's defensive improvement. CB Marshon Lattimore enjoyed a breakout campaign in 2017, starting all 13 games he appeared in and leading NFL rookies with a team-high five interceptions and tying for the rookie lead with a club-best 18 passes defended as he was the youngest Saint (21 years old) ever selected to the Pro Bowl and the franchise's first AP Defensive Rookie of the Year. In 2018, Lattimore continued his development, leading the team with five takeaways in the regular season, adding two interceptions in the NFC Divisional Playoff win over Philadelphia. At the corner position opposite Lattimore in 2018, Glenn helped Eli Apple make a successful in-season transition to the Saints after being acquired from the New York Giants, recording three takeaways in ten games. He has been instrumental in the development in two young safeties in Vonn Bell and Marcus Williams, who went from second round draft selections in 2016 and 2017 to starters. Bell has led the secondary in tackles for three consecutive seasons, finishing with 87 stops in 2018. In 2018, Williams started all 16 games at free safety and recorded two interception returns for 100 yards and one fumble recovery.

From 2014-15, Glenn served as assistant secondary coach with the Cleveland Browns. In a 2015 campaign where Pro Bowl CB Joe Haden played in only five games due to injuries, Cleveland's secondary was led by veterans in S Donte Whitner and CB Tramont Williams, who led the defensive backfield with 81 and 69 tackles respectively. In 2014, Glenn worked with a group that garnered Pro Bowl honors from S Tashaun Gipson, Haden and Whitner, marking the first time in team history that three defensive backs were selected. The Browns led the NFL in opponent passer rating (74.1), completion percentage (57.1) and passes defended (99). Cleveland finished second in the league with 21 interceptions, the team's highest total since 2008. They also finished ranked fifth in the league in yards per pass attempt (6.44), fifth in red zone defense (46.3) and ninth in points per game (21.1). Cleveland was also the only team to have two players with at least 18 passes defended, as Haden led the team and finished second in the league with 20, while CB Buster Skrine tied for fourth with 18. Despite missing the final five games, Gipson finished second in the NFL with six interceptions, the most by a Brown since 2010.

Before joining the Browns, Glenn spent two seasons (2012-13) in the New York

Jets front office. He served as a college area scout in 2013 after a season as a pro personnel scout.

A first-round pick (12th overall) by the Jets in 1994 out of Texas A&M, Glenn started 176 of his 205 career games during his tenure with New York (1994-2001), Houston (2002-04), Dallas (2005-06), Jacksonville (2007) and New Orleans (2008). A three-time Pro Bowler (1997-98, 2002), he recorded 661 career tackles, 41 interceptions and 167 passes defended. Glenn scored eight career touchdowns, including six interception returns, a 96-yard kickoff return and a 104-yard return on a missed field goal.

Glenn earned a bachelor's degree in business management from Texas A&M, where he was a two-time All-American, departing as the school's all-time leader in passes defended in a season (20), season punt-return average (19.9) and punt return yards in a game (131). In 2003, the Humble, Texas native established the Aaron Glenn Foundation, which supports education and health initiatives for families and children.

CURTIS JOHNSON

SENIOR OFFENSIVE ASSISTANT

In his second stint with the Saints, Curtis Johnson enters his ninth season on the New Orleans staff. Possessing more than 30 years of coaching experience at the collegiate and professional levels, Johnson has had the opportunity to coach some of the game's top receivers, including Marques Colston, Devery Henderson, Ted Ginn Jr., Joe Horn, Alshon Jeffery Andre Johnson, Robert Meachem, Lance Moore, Santana Moss, Michael Thomas and Reggie Wayne.

Johnson possesses 35 years of coaching experience, including four as head coach at Tulane University and 31 seasons in all as an offensive assistant in the NFL, college and high school.

Under Johnson's direction, the Saints have produced a 1,000-yard wide receiver in seven of his eight seasons on the New Orleans sideline, easily the most impressive results in franchise history. During that tenure, he has been a part of six play-off teams, five division titles and one Super Bowl championship.

Last season, Johnson helped Thomas shatter the club's receptions and receiving yardage records with a league-best 125 grabs for 1,405 yards and nine touchdown grabs, as he was voted an Associated Press first-team All-Pro and selected a Pro Bowl starter. He also helped develop 2018 third-round pick Tre'Quan Smith, who was named NFL Rookie of the Week after a ten reception, 157-yard, one touchdown performance in Week 11.

In Johnson's first season tutoring Thomas in 2017, the wideout set the club's receiving record for the first time with 104 receptions for 1,245 yards, while earning his first Pro Bowl berth. Ginn in his first season as a Saint, finished the regular season with 53 receptions for 787 yards (14.8 avg.) and four touchdowns and added 12 grabs for 187 yards (15.6 avg.) and an 80-yard touchdown in the postseason.

In 2016, Johnson instructed a Chicago Bears wide receiving corps that was hampered by injuries for much of the season, with Jeffery still accumulating 821 receiving yards on 52 receptions (15.8 avg.) despite playing in just 12 games. Cameron Meredith became the first undrafted player to lead the Bears in receiving since 1993, finishing with 66 catches for a club-best 888 yards and four touchdowns. During Johnson's first six-year stint with the Saints he helped the wide receivers become part of a passing offense that led the NFL in gross passing yards (28,749), completion percentage (67.6) and passing touchdowns (202). The Saints had 42 100-yard receiving performances by wideouts during those six seasons. During those six seasons, Johnson oversaw the development of the quartet of Colston, Henderson, Meachem and Moore.

A seventh round selection (252nd overall) of the Saints in the 2006 NFL Draft, Colston made an immediate impact as a rookie by recording 70 receptions for 1,038 yards (14.8 avg.) with eight touchdowns, leading the club in receiving yardage and scoring grabs. During Johnson's first Saints tenure from 2006-11, Colston ranked eighth in the NFL in receiving yards (6,240), ninth in receptions (449) and seventh in receiving touchdowns (48), while compiling five of his six career 1,000-yard receiving seasons. Colston's 98 receptions in 2007, what was a franchise mark and his 11 touchdowns that season tied a team record (now tied for second). In 2009, when New Orleans captured Super Bowl XLIV, Colston led the team with 70 grabs for 1,074 yards and tied for the team lead with nine touchdowns. After recording only three grabs in his first two seasons from 2004-05, Henderson caught 201 passes for 3,718 yards with 16 touchdowns in his next six campaigns under Johnson's tutelage, with his 18.5 yards per catch average ranked second in the NFL over that period. A first round draft pick of the club in 2007, Meachem evolved into another deep threat during Johnson's tenure, recording 141 receptions for 2,269 yards (16.1 avg.) with 23 touchdowns from 2008-11. Originally signed by New Orleans in 2005 after coming into the league earlier that season as an undrafted free agent, Moore finally cracked the Saints active roster and wide receiver rotation for good in 2007 and for the next five seasons made 243 grabs for 1,173 yards with 30 touchdowns. Both Colston and Moore have been selected to the Saints Hall of Fame.

At Miami, Johnson was part of a staff that went to nine bowl games and won the 2001 National Championship. He polished the skills of at least one All-Big East performer each season from 1996-2005, including Johnson - the third overall pick by Houston in 2003 - and Moss, who became the Hurricanes' all-time leader in receiving yardage before making the Pro Bowl for Washington. Wayne departed ranked first in school history in catches and was selected to six Pro Bowls over his 14-year NFL career with the Indianapolis Colts.

In his five-year stint at San Diego State (1989-93), Johnson landed some of the school's biggest recruits, including 2000 NFL MVP, Pro Football Hall of Fame member and fellow New Orleans native Marshall Faulk as well as WR Darnay Scott, who completed his eight-year NFL career with 408 grabs and 37 touchdowns. Each year Johnson was with the Aztecs, the school had an all-conference performer at wide receiver.

Johnson began his coaching career as wide receivers coach at Lewiston (Idaho) High School from 1984-87 before holding a similar position at the University of Idaho. He spent 1987 and 1988 at the school before becoming receivers coach at San Diego State. His next stop was at Southern Methodist in 1994 before spending 1995 at the University of California.

Johnson attended Idaho and graduated with a degree in Physical Education in 1985. He was born in New Orleans and is a graduate of St. Charles High School.

PLAYING CAREER: Idaho, 1980-83.

COACHING CAREER: Lewiston (Idaho) High School, 1984-87; Idaho, 1987-88; San Diego State, 1989-93; SMU, 1994; California, 1995; Miami (Fla.), 1996-2005; New Orleans Saints, 2006-11; Tulane (Head Coach), 2012-15; Chicago Bears, 2016; New Orleans Saints, 2017-.

JOE LOMBARDI

QUARTERBACKS

Joe Lombardi enters his 11th season as a member of the Saints coaching staff in his second stint in New Orleans. Lombardi, who spent 2014-15 as the offensive coordinator of the Detroit Lions, returned to New Orleans after serving on the club's coaching staff from 2007-13. This is his ninth campaign tutoring the quarterbacks.

Under Lombardi's supervision in 2018, Drew Brees enjoyed one of his most productive seasons under center. Brees finished the 2018 regular season surpassing his prior NFL record for completion percentage (74.4%), leading the league with a career-high 115.7 passer rating to go along with 32 touchdowns and only five interceptions, his lowest total as a Saint, in a season when he became the league's all-time completions and passing yardage leader. Brees was selected as an AP second-team All-Pro and as the NFC's Pro Bowl starter.

In 2017, Brees set the NFL single-season record for completion percentage (72.0), completing 386-of-536 passes for 4,334 yards and 23 touchdowns, eight interceptions, his lowest total as a Saint to date and a 103.9 passer rating, earning a Pro Bowl berth. In addition to the NFL-record completion percentage, he ranked first in completions, second in passer rating, third in fourth quarter passer rating (117.6) and fourth in passing yardage.

Brees has thrived under Lombardi's presence during the nine seasons he's served as the signal-caller's position coach, completing 3,368-of-4,847 passes (69.5%) for 38,357 yards with 285 touchdowns and only 106 interceptions. He's been named to the Pro Bowl in eight of the nine seasons. He carried an NFL-record 54 game streak with at least one touchdown pass from 2009-12. Brees enjoyed another of his most prolific seasons in 2011 under Lombardi's supervision, when he completed 468-of-657 passes for what was then an NFL record 5,476 yards with 46 touchdowns and a 110.6 rating. As an offensive assistant from 2007-08, he was heavily involved in the preparation of the quarterbacks and passing attack as well, having worked closely with offensive coordinator Pete Carmichael. Lombardi also stepped in for a brief stint as the running backs coach near the end of 2008.

In serving as coordinator of the Lions in 2014, the Detroit offense gained 5,452 total net yards, which was then the eighth-highest total in franchise history. WRs Calvin Johnson (1,077) and Golden Tate (1,331) became only the sixth Lions receiving duo to reach 1,000 receiving yards in the same season. QB Matthew Stafford led the Lions to five victories when trailing or tied in the fourth quarter or overtime as Detroit finished 11-5 and qualified for the playoffs for the first time since 2011.

Lombardi first arrived in New Orleans in 2007 with extensive coaching experience on both sides of the ball, most recently serving as defensive assistant for the Atlanta Falcons in 2006. While in that role, Lombardi worked with a defensive line that combined for 25.5 sacks.

Bringing game-planning and play-calling experience to his position, he was the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach from 2002-05 at Mercyhurst College, while also serving as recruiting coordinator.

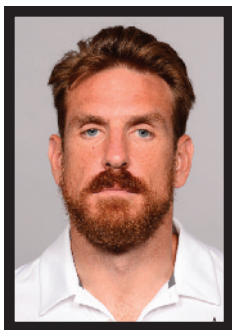

In 2001, Lombardi coached tight ends and running backs for the XFL's New York/New Jersey Hitmen. In 2000, he tutored the defensive line and served as strength & conditioning coordinator at Bucknell University.

He coached both the tight ends and tackles at the Virginia Military Institute in 1999 after opening his coaching career at the University of Dayton, where he was responsible for the defensive line from 1996-98. The Flyers won 20-straight games during his tenure.

Lombardi - the grandson of legendary coach Vince Lombardi - is a 1994 graduate of the United States Air Force Academy, where he earned three letters as a tight end and one in lacrosse. Lombardi, who served a four-year tour on active duty as an Air Force officer following graduation, is a supporter and participant in many of the club's initiatives supporting military and was the 2018 team nominee for the NFL's Salute to Service Award.

PLAYING CAREER: Air Force, 1991-94.

COACHING CAREER: Dayton, 1996-98; Virginia Military Institute, 1999; Bucknell University, 2000; New York/New Jersey Hitmen (XFL), 2001; Mercyhurst College, 2002-05; Atlanta Falcons, 2006; New Orleans Saints, 2007-13; Detroit Lions, 2014-15; New Orleans Saints, 2016-.

From 2013-2016, he was the defensive line/recruiting coordinator/run game coordinator at North Carolina State. The 2016 season saw the Wolfpack rank eighth in the FBS in rush defense and lead the ACC, allowing just 108.6 rushing yards per game – the school's best mark since 2004. Junior DE Bradley Chubb recorded 22 tackles for loss, fourth in the country, while his 11 sacks were fourth in the ACC and 19th in the nation. He was named second-team All-ACC. A Broyles Award candidate in 2015/2016, given annually to college football's top assistant coach, Nielsen earned this recognition tutoring a Wolfpack defensive line that was part of a defense that ranked 29th in the FBS in opponent net yards per game. DE Mike Rose was a second-team All-ACC selection after he finished second in the ACC in sacks and ninth in tackles for loss. In the 2018 NFL Draft, four linemen who Nielsen coached in Raleigh; Chubb, B.J. Hill, Justin Jones and Kentavious Street, were all selected.

Nielsen coached at Northern Illinois from 2011-12, including a 2012 season where he was the co-defensive coordinator/defensive line/recruiting coordinator and helped the Huskies to the 2012 GoDaddy.com Bowl. Two defensive linemen were first-team All-MAC selections in 2012, Sean Progar and Alan Baxter, while Nabal Jefferson was a National Scholar-Athlete and finalist for the 2012 William V. Campbell Trophy. In 2011, Nielsen coached Progar and Ron Newcomb to All-Mid American Conference honors.

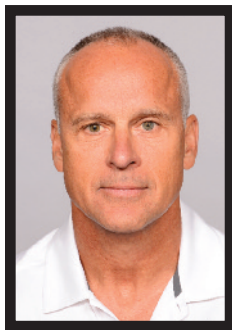

COACHING STAFF

Serving as the defensive line/special teams coach at Tennessee-Martin in 2010, the Skyhawks led the Ohio Valley Conference in total defense. From 2008-09, Nielsen was the defensive coordinator and coached the defensive line and linebackers at Central Connecticut State. In 2009, Central Connecticut won the Northeastern Conference title. Nielsen served as the defensive line coach at the University of Mississippi from 2005-07 under current LSU Head Coach and former Saints assistant Ed Orgeron, following one season at the University of Idaho, where he coached two freshman All-Americans. Rebels defensive linemen led the Southeastern Conference in sacks twice during his three-year stint. Nielsen got his start in coaching as a volunteer assistant at his alma mater, the University of Southern California in 2002.

Nielsen, a Simi Valley, Calif. native who started 30 games at defensive tackle at USC from 1998-2001, finished his college career with 107 career tackles and was voted the team's Defensive Lineman of the Year in 1999. MIKE NOLAN

LINEBACKERS

Mike Nolan is in his third season as the linebackers coach for the Saints. Nolan, a 37-year coaching veteran who will be entering his 32nd season in the National Football League, was named to the post on January 31, 2017.

The son of former NFL safety and coaching veteran Dick Nolan who guided the Saints from 1978-80 after serving as an assistant in 1977, Mike Nolan has played a significant role in helping the Black and Gold linebackers become a strength of the defense. The group helped the Saints defense finish second in the NFL in opponent rushing yards per game (80.2) and opponent yards per rush (3.6). Demario Davis, an unrestricted free agent acquisition, enjoyed a breakout season, posting a club-best 110 tackles (74 solo), five sacks, two forced fumbles and one fumble recovery. In the postseason, Davis led the Saints with 22 more stops and an interception. A.J. Klein filled up the stat sheet with 70 stops, two sacks, an interception, three passes defended and two fumble recoveries. Alex Anzalone progressed in his second season with 59 tackles, two sacks, one pick and three forced fumbles.

In 2017, Nolan's first year in New Orleans, the veteran coach fought through injuries to his unit, still coaxing out impressive productivity. Third-round draft pick Anzalone was a Week One starter and made 16 tackles, one sack and one pass defended before suffering a season-ending shoulder injury in Week Four. Klein was an unrestricted free agent acquisition from Carolina and started 12 games, recording 54 stops, two sacks, five passes defended and one forced fumble. Craig Robertson returned to the starting lineup after Anzalone's injury, playing in all 16 games and leading the linebackers with 77 tackles, two sacks, two interceptions, six passes defended, one forced fumble and one fumble recovery. Manti Te'o was an unrestricted free agent signing from the San Diego Chargers, who played in all 16 games and finished with 61 stops, three passes defended and one fumble recovery.

Nolan served as linebackers coach of the Chargers in 2015 and garnered impressive performances from a trio of young players at his position group. Te'o led the team with 107 tackles, while rookie Denzel Perryman ranked second on the club with 95 stops, despite starting only nine contests. On the outside, Melvin Ingram led the team and tied for 12th in the NFL with 10.5 sacks.

Nolan has served as defensive coordinator for the Atlanta Falcons (2012-14), Miami Dolphins (2010-11), Denver Broncos (2009), Baltimore Ravens (2002-04), New York Jets (2000), Washington Redskins (1997-99) and New York Giants (1993-96). In those 17 seasons, the defenses that Nolan's tutored have finished in the Top 10 in scoring defense eight times. In 2012, the Falcons finished fifth in the NFL in opponent points per game (18.7 points per game), opponent red zone touchdown percentage (46.1 pct.), total takeaways (31) and interceptions (20), as they earned the NFC's number one seed in the playoffs and advanced to the NFC Championship game. During his two-season stint in Miami, the Dolphins tied for second in the NFL in opponent red zone touchdown percentage, ranked sixth in opponent net yards per game, seventh in run defense and eighth in pass defense in 2010 and finished third against the run, sixth in opponent points per game and opponent red zone touchdown percentage, seventh in third-down defense and tenth in sacks in 2011. In 2009 in Denver, the Broncos improved in opponent net yards per game to seventh overall, including third in pass defense, after ranking 29th in total defense in 2008.

From 2005-08, Nolan served as head coach in San Francisco, following in the footsteps of his father who coached the 49ers for eight seasons (1968-75) prior to his four-year Saints tenure. The 49ers were one of the NFL's most consistent teams in stopping the run during Nolan's tenure, ranking fourth in the league in opponent yards per carry (3.9) during that period. In 2007, the 49ers selected linebacker Patrick Willis with the 11th pick in the draft, who would be selected as the AP Defensive Rookie of the Year and as a first-team All-Pro, the squad's only rookie. Willis became the first defensive rookie from the 49ers to make the Pro Bowl since Ronnie Lott (1981), finishing with 226 tackles (143 solo), four sacks, two forced fumbles and a fumble recovery.

Nolan earned the 49ers head coaching job after a successful four-year stint with Baltimore, which included three seasons (2002-04) as their coordinator. In 2002, he coached one of the league's youngest defenses, yet the Ravens recorded a team-record and AFC-leading 25 interceptions. Over the course of his three seasons as defensive coordinator, the Ravens tied for the league lead in takeaways (106), while ranking fifth in points per game allowed (18.8). Five Baltimore defenders earned a total of nine trips to the Pro Bowl and Nolan instructed back-to-back AP NFL Defensive Players of the Year in LB Ray Lewis (2003) and S Ed Reed (2004), both of who have been selected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame. Nolan became a defensive coordinator for the first time in his career in 1993 with the New York Giants after serving as both the linebackers coach and special teams coordinator with the Broncos from 1987-92, a time during which Denver participated in two Super Bowls (XXII and XXIV). The Giants defense allowed a league-low 12.8 points per game in his first season.

Nolan was a three-year starter at safety at the University of Oregon, after initially enrolling and joining the team as a walk-on. After beginning his coaching career at his alma mater in 1981, he then tutored linebackers and defensive backs at Stanford (1982-83) and Rice (1984-85), before coaching linebackers at Louisiana State University in 1986 prior to entering the NFL coaching ranks with Denver.

Nugent has assisted with an offensive line that has surrendered only 20 sacks apiece in both 2017 and 2018, each season the second-lowest total in the NFL. During the two seasons, five Pro Bowl selections have come from the Saints offensive line, including four in 2018.

Prior to coming to New Orleans, Nugent served as an offensive quality control coach with the Chicago Bears from 2013-14, following then-Bears Head Coach Marc Trestman south of the border after serving under him in the Canadian Football League in 2012 in Montreal as the Alouettes special teams assistant and offensive quality control coach.

DARREN RIZZI

SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR

Darren Rizzi was named special teams coordinator for the New Orleans Saints on February 11, 2019. Rizzi, comes to New Orleans with 26 years of coaching experience, including a ten-season stint with the Miami Dolphins from 2009-18. He coordinated the Dolphins special teams efforts from 2011-18, additionally serving as assistant head coach/special teams coordinator from 2015-16 and associate head coach/special teams coordinator from 2017-18.

Rizzi's Dolphins units the past eight seasons were ranked first in the NFL with 11 blocked punts and second in the league with 22 total blocked kicks. During his Dolphins tenure, three special teams players have been named to four Pro Bowls. He coached five players to the NFL All-Rookie team in the past six years. Rizzi's units served in the top half of NFL writer Rick Gosselin's annual special teams rankings in all eight years that he served as the Dolphins special teams coordinator.

In 2018, the Dolphins graded out fourth in the NFL in Gosselin's rankings. Kicker Jason Sanders drilled 18-of-20 (90.0 pct.) field goal attempts and was selected to the PFWA All-Rookie team selection. He was one of only four NFL kickers to kick in all of his team's games and miss just two or fewer field goals and one of only four to miss three or fewer kicks. His 90.0 field goal percentage was ranked eighth in the NFL and fifth-best in Dolphins history. Punter Matt Haack's 35 punts inside the 20-yard line ranked fifth in the NFL. Miami was eighth in the NFL in punt return average (10.5 avg.) with Jakeem Grant leading the league (16.3) before being placed on Injured Reserve in Week 13. Seniorise Perry led the Dolphins with 12 special teams tackles.

In 2017, the Dolphins were tied for second in the NFL with three blocked kicks - two field goals and one punt. Kicker Cody Parkey tied a team field goal percentage record by converting 21-of-23 attempts (91.3 pct.), including a 54-yard game-winner in the season opener at the L.A. Chargers (9/17), the longest game-winner in team history. Parkey also successfully converted four inside kicks, the most in NFL history since records date back to 1997. Miami's kickoff coverage unit was the best in the NFL, forcing opponents to start on average at their own 23-yard line after kickoffs. The team graded out at No. 11 in Gosselin's rankings and Pro Football Focus ranked the team's special teams No. 6 in the NFL. Michael Thomas was named PFF's Special Teamer of the Year and led the Dolphins with 11 special teams tackles.

Miami was seventh in Gosselin's rankings in 2016 and led the National Football League in opponent gross punting average (41.8 yards per punt) and tied for the league lead with four blocked kicks. Kicker Andrew Franks made the first two game-winning kicks of his career and drilled an important 55-yard field goal at Buffalo (12/24) as the field goal unit was rushing onto the field to tie the game and send it to overtime. The eventual Dolphins win went on to solidify the team's first playoff berth since 2008. Grant and kickoff returner Kenyan Drake each had touchdown returns, becoming the second Dolphins rookie tandem and fourth NFL rookie duo to return a punt and kickoff for a touchdown in the same season. Thomas tied for the NFL lead in special teams tackles (19) and Mike Hull was third (18). Walt Aikens scored the first 2-point defensive conversion in team history after he returned a blocked PAT for two points vs. Arizona (12/11). The team finished in the top 10 in several additional special teams units including opponents starting field position following a kickoff (10th/24.4 yard line), own starting field position following a kickoff (8th/25.3 yard line) and opponent net punting average (3rd/37.4 yards per punt).

In 2015, Jarvis Landry earned AFC Special Teams Player of the Week honors for his Week 1 performance at Washington where he returned a punt 69 yards for a touchdown in the win. Landry was fourth in the league with 356 punt return yards. Matt Darr posted the fourth-best punting average (47.6) in team history and earned NFL All-Rookie team honors as his average ranked third in the league. Franks was 13-for-16 in field goal attempts as a rookie. The Dolphins ranked in the top 10 in five special teams categories.

In 2014, Rizzi guided a special teams unit that set the team record with three blocked punts in a season. They also added two blocked field goals, giving Miami five blocked kicks on the year, the most since the team blocked seven in 1977. Explosive plays were not limited to the block units as Landry won October AFC Special Teams Player of the Month when he returned five kickoffs for 178 yards (35.6 avg.), with a long of 54 yards. The 35.6 average kickoff return was the second-highest in the NFL in October and was the highest October average in franchise history. Landry finished the season with a 28.1 kick return average, the fourth-highest in the NFL and tops among rookies.

In 2013, for the third-consecutive season, the Dolphins' special teams were rated among the top eight units in the NFL based on Gosselin's annual rankings. Miami was one of three teams to remain in the top 10 (along with Baltimore and Seattle) in both the 2013 and 2012 rankings. Additionally, from 2011-13, only Miami and Seattle were ranked in the top 10. Rizzi's units were highlighted by the play of Brandon Fields, who earned his first Pro Bowl berth. Fields ranked second in the NFL in punt average (48.8 yards per punt), second in net average (42.4, which was eighth-best in NFL history at the time), tied for third with 33 punts inside the 20-yard line and also recorded the third-longest punt (74 yards) during the season. Fields is one of only two Dolphins punters to be selected to the Pro Bowl, joining Reggie Roby.

The 2012 campaign was built off a strong 2011 season for the Dolphins special teams. Gosselin ranked Miami as one of the top five special teams units in the NFL for the second consecutive year, making the Dolphins the only team in the NFL to rank in the top five during both the 2012 and 2011 seasons, following a second place finish in '11. Fields continued to establish himself as one of the most productive punters in NFL history, leading the league with a 50.2 average, while moving into first place in team history for highest career punting average (46.4), highest-career net punting average (38.7) and second place in NFL history for highest-career punting average (46.4). Newcomer Marcus Thigpen became the first player in team history to return a kickoff (96 yards at Buffalo on 11/5) and a punt (72 yards at Houston on 9/9) for touchdowns in the same season. Thigpen also stood alone as the only player in the NFL to rank in the top five in kickoff return average (27.4) and punt return average (12.2) in 2012. Additionally, Miami became the first NFL team in the last 20 years to block a field goal, block a punt and recover their own onside kick in the same game when the unit accomplished that feat at the New York Jets (10/28).

Rizzi led an impressive 2011 season by the Dolphins special teams. After he took over the special teams in Week 5 in 2010, the Dolphins improved in almost every major statistical special teams category, including net and gross punt average, punt and kick return average, average drive start and opponent's gross and net punt average. The units showed the biggest improvement of any NFL special teams unit in the NFL from 2010 to 2011 according to the annual special teams report compiled by Gosselin. The improvement saw the Dolphins jump from their 2010 ranking of 24th in the NFL to second in 2011. The 22-place advancement was aided by Carpenter's 13 of 16 in field goals from 40 yards and beyond and Fields' net punting average of 41.1 yards, finishing just behind the special teams units of the San Francisco 49ers.

Rizzi joined the Dolphins with four years of experience as a college head coach, including 2008 at the University of Rhode Island. Prior to taking over the program at URI, Rizzi was an assistant at Rutgers for the previous six seasons (2002-07), where he headed up the Scarlet Knights' special teams units. He also tutored the team's running backs his first three years and the linebackers his final three. In addition, he held the title of assistant head coach from 2004-06 and associate head coach in 2007. In Rizzi's six years at Rutgers, he coached three players who earned first-team All-Big East honors in special teams including kick returner Nate Jones (2002), kick/punt returner Willie Foster (2005) and punter Joe Radigan (2006). Jones also was named the conference's co-Special Teams Player of the Year in 2002 while Foster was the Big East Special Teams Player of the Year in 2005.

Before his Rutgers stint, Rizzi was head coach at the University of New Haven, where he guided the Chargers to a three-year record of 15-14 from 1999-2001. He was the special teams and linebackers coach at Northeastern University in 1998. He coached at New Haven from 1994-97, where he was defensive coordinator in his final year there, after overseeing the special teams and defensive line his first three. Rizzi began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Colgate in 1993.

Rizzi played tight end at Rhode Island, where he first walked on in 1988. He went on to tally 160 receptions for 2,426 yards (15.2 avg.) and 15 touchdowns in his collegiate career and was a consensus All-American in 1992. He was signed as a free agent by the Philadelphia Eagles prior to beginning his coaching career.

A native of Hillsdale, N.J. and a graduate of Bergen Catholic High School, Rizzi earned a degree in speech communications from URI in 1992. In 2013, he was inducted into the Bergen Catholic Hall of Fame. A two-sport high school star, he concluded his prep football career with 69 receptions, a school record which stood for 22 years, also excelling as an All-League outfielder for the baseball team.

DAN ROUSHAR

OFFENSIVE LINE

A 33-year coaching veteran, including three stints as a college offensive coordinator, Dan Roushar enters his fourth season as offensive line coach in his seventh campaign with the New Orleans Saints after tutoring the running backs and tight ends from 2013-15.

In 2018, Roushar helped the line block for a rushing attack that was ranked sixth (126.6 avg.) in the NFL and led the league with 26 touchdowns. Despite being forced to use nine different starting offensive linemen due to injuries, the Saints allowed just 20 sacks, ranked second in the NFL. Left tackle Terron Armstead and right tackle Ryan Ramczyk were both selected as Associated Press All-Pros, while Armstead, guard Andrus Peat, center Max Unger and right guard Larry Warford were named to the Pro Bowl.

In 2017, Roushar played a vital role in the development of Ramczyk, one of the club's first round picks, who ended up playing every offensive snap on the line as a PFWA All-Rookie selection. The line allowed just 20 sacks, the second-fewest in the NFL, even though they had to open with six different combinations. They played an instrumental role in blocking for an offense that was the only one to finish in the top five in both rushing and passing, second overall in total offense. The run game ranked fifth in the league in the club's most productive season since 1987, grinding out 129.4 yards per game. The 3,094 combined total yards from scrimmage from Mark Ingram II and rookie Alvin Kamara was the second-most by an NFL running back duo since the start of a 16-game season in 1978. The 4,339 combined total yards from scrimmage by Ingram, Kamara and wide receiver Michael Thomas, was the highest total by a skill position trio in club history. Warford was selected to his first Pro Bowl in his first season as a Saint.

In 2016 under Roushar, the Saints front helped the offense finish ranked first in the NFL in net yards per game (426.0) and second in points per game (29.3). The O-line finished tied for sixth in the NFL in fewest sacks allowed (27), even though they had to open with six different combinations, including three left tackles and three left guards. Behind the blocking, quarterback Drew Brees set an NFL single season record in completions (471) and led the league in passing yardage (5,208), earning a Pro Bowl selection. The line also paved the way for running back Ingram to surpass the 1,000-yard mark for the first time in his career. The offense also produced a pair of 1,000-yard receivers.

After tutoring the running backs from 2013-14, Roushar became tight ends coach in 2015 and his position group played an integral role in the NFL's second-ranked offense. As a unit, they combined for 101 receptions for 1,021 yards with 11 touchdowns. In his third season in New Orleans and first as the club's featured tight end, Benjamin Watson set career-highs in both receptions and receiving yardage and tied a career-best in scoring grabs, when he made 74 grabs for 825 yards (11.1 avg.) and six touchdowns. Josh Hill and Michael Hoomanawanui, acquired early in the season in a trade with New England, combined for an additional five touchdowns.

In 2014, Roushar helped guide a running attack that gained 1,818 yards and improved in league rankings from 25th to 13th. Under Roushar's tutelage, Ingram enjoyed a breakout season as he was selected to the first Pro Bowl of his career, leading New Orleans with 964 rushing yards and nine touchdowns.

Under Roushar's guidance in 2013, the Saints running backs helped the team finish ranked fourth in the NFL in offense. Pierre Thomas (77) and Darren Sproles (71) became the first running back duo in franchise history to each record at least 70 receptions, as Thomas led the league among running backs and Sproles ranked fourth. Thomas led the team in rushing with 549 yards and finished with 1,062 total yards from scrimmage. Roushar also helped foster impressive development and late season production out of Ingram and rookie Khiry Robinson, who were the club's leading rushers in the postseason.

Roushar came to New Orleans following a six-year stint at Michigan State, the final two as offensive coordinator/tight ends coach. In 2012, the Spartans enjoyed a productive campaign running the ball as Le'Veon Bell won the Big Ten rushing title with 1,793 yards, the second-highest single-season total in school history, as he was selected first-team All-Big Ten and a first-team All-American by CollegeFootballNews.com. The pass offense ranked fourth in the conference. In Roushar's first season as coordinator in 2011, the Spartans averaged 31.0 points per game, ranked third in the conference, setting school records for most points (434) and passing yards (3,535), while finishing second in net yardage (5,466). Prior to his promotion to coordinator, Roushar served four seasons as the Spartans' offensive line coach.

In four seasons coaching the Michigan State front, Roushar's linemen earned All-Big Ten recognition on eight occasions. In 2010, the Spartans established their running identity early, rushing for more than 200 yards in five of their first six games. In 2009, his unit surrendered only 14 sacks, the fewest amount of any team in the conference. The previous year, the offensive line blocked for the nation's fourth-leading rusher in Javon Ringer, while allowing only 24 takedowns. Upon his arrival in East Lansing in 2007, Roushar juggled the starting lineup with eight different offensive line combinations, but he led his unit to be one of the most productive in the Big Ten as the Spartans ranked fourth in the conference and 25th in the NCAA in rushing (198.2 yards per game).

Prior to arriving in East Lansing, Roushar served two seasons as offensive line coach at Cincinnati from 2005-06. A two-year letterman as a quarterback at Northern Illinois, he began his coaching career as a student assistant at his alma mater in 1984 and also spent time as an assistant at Butler (offensive coordinator-1986-92), the University of Rhode Island (1993), Ball State (offensive coordinator-1994) and the University of Illinois (1995-96). Roushar then spent six years as offensive line coach/offensive coordinator at Northern Illinois before returning to Champaign for a two-year stint in 2003, serving as offensive coordinator in his final season with the Illini.

PLAYING CAREER: Northern Illinois, 1982-83.

JOEL THOMAS

RUNNING BACKS

Joel Thomas enters his fifth season as the Saints running backs coach after 15 years of coaching in the college ranks. Since arriving in 2015, the club has led the NFL with 82 rushing touchdowns.

In the past two seasons, Thomas has helped his players earn three Pro Bowl selections – Mark Ingram II (2017) and Alvin Kamara (2017-18). He's also been the position coach for two seasons of at least 1,500 total yards of scrimmage by Kamara and one by Ingram, with Zach Line providing the blocking for the position group. In total, his running backs have registered 15 individual 100-yard performances since 2015.

In 2018, as a team the Saints were sixth in the NFL in rushing (126.6 yards per game). Kamara had a standout sophomore campaign, resulting in his second Pro Bowl berth as he rushed 194 times for a club best 883 yards (4.6 avg.) with a club-record 14 touchdowns. He also caught 81 receptions for 709 yards with four scores for a 1,589 total yards from scrimmage and 18 total touchdowns, tying the franchise record. Ingram rush 138 times for 645 yards (4.7 avg.) with six touchdowns in 12 games.

In 2017, the duo of Ingram and rookie Kamara produced standout seasons, with both being selected to the Pro Bowl. Ingram appeared in all 16 games for the second consecutive season and led the team with a career-high 1,124 yards rushing and a career-best 12 touchdowns on 230 carries, a 4.9-yard average per attempt. He also added a career-high 58 receptions for 416 yards for a career-high 1,540 total yards from scrimmage. Kamara set a league record for rookie running backs with 826 receiving yards on 81 receptions and five touchdowns, while he led the NFL by averaging 6.1 yards per carry on 120 carries for 728 yards with eight touchdowns, as he led the club with 1,554 total yards from scrimmage and was selected by the Associated Press as the NFL Offensive Rookie of the Year and as a second-team All-Pro at the Flex position. The 3,094 combined total yards from scrimmage from Ingram and Kamara was the second-most by an NFL running back duo since the start of a 16-game season in 1978.

Under Thomas' tutelage in 2016, Ingram became the first Saint to record 1,000 yards rushing in a single season since Deuce McAllister (2006). He accumulated 1,043 yards on 205 rushing attempts (5.1 avg.) with six touchdowns and 319 yards on 46 receptions with four touchdowns for 1,362 total yards from scrimmage. His 5.1 yards per carry for ranked third in the NFL among rushers with at least 200 carries. Tim Hightower also enjoyed a productive season under Thomas, with his 548 rushing yards marking his most since 2010 and his 200 yards receiving marking his most since 2009.

In 2015, Thomas tutored Ingram who had team-best 1,074 total yards from scrimmage, despite missing the last four games with a shoulder injury. Overall, he carried 166 times for a team-best 769 yards (4.6 avg.) with six touchdowns and added 50 receptions for 405 yards. After Ingram was sidelined, Thomas prepared Hightower, who had missed the previous three seasons into duty and he gained 454 total yards from scrimmage and four touchdowns in the final four contests.

Thomas came to New Orleans following a two-year stint in the same position at Arkansas from 2013-14. In those two seasons, tailbacks Jonathan Williams and Alex Collins both blossomed. In 2014, they were the only pair of FBS teammates to rush for 1,000-plus yards. The duo became just the second pair of Razorbacks to accomplish the feat. Collins became just the second player in school history to surpass 1,000 yards in each of his first two seasons and was named SEC Freshman of the Year in 2013.

Thomas spent the four previous seasons (2009-12) as running backs coach at Washington, coaching a 1,000 yard rusher in each, and added the title of associate head coach for offense prior to the 2012 campaign. In his last season, Thomas tutored All-Pac-12 running back Bishop Sankey, ranked third in the Pac-12 and tied for 13th in the NCAA with 16 rushing touchdowns, second-highest single-season in school history, rushing for 1,439 yards, third-highest in Huskies history.

Thomas also has experience as running backs coach at Purdue (2006-08), Idaho (2004-05) and Louisville (2002-03).

In 2007, the Boilermakers led the Big Ten in total offense and scoring offense. In 2008, they set a school record for fewest fumbles (12) and Kory Sheets rushed for 1,131 yards to become Purdue's first 1,000 yard rusher in six seasons while posting the fourth-highest single-season rushing total in school history, ending his career second on the school's career rushing list with 3,341 yards. Sheets tied the school's single-season rushing touchdowns record with 16 in 2008 and broke the career record (48). Thomas was also at Purdue from 2000-01, as an offensive graduate assistant. In 2000, Drew Brees led the NCAA in total offense and won the Maxwell Award as the Boilermakers won the Big Ten and advanced to the Rose Bowl for the first time in 33 years.

In between stays at Purdue, Thomas served as co-offensive coordinator at Idaho in 2004-05 and as running backs coach at Louisville from 2002-03. In 2003, Louisville averaged 228.2 rushing yards per game to rank tenth in the NCAA with a school-record 5.7 yards per carry average. The 2004 Idaho squad set a school record for completion percentage, and the 2005 team ranked 28th in the country in passing yards per game.

Thomas also gained NFL experience from two training camp internships, serving one with the Saints in 2012 and one with the Pittsburgh Steelers in 2008.

GAME NOTES

WR Michael Thomas set a club record for receiving with 16 receptions for 180 yards and one touchdown.

New Orleans dropped their opener for the fifth consecutive season.

QB Drew Brees completed 37-of-45 passes for 439 yards, three touchdowns, starting a banner season where he would become the NFL's all-time passing yardage leader.

After a fast New Orleans Saints start, the Tampa Bay Buccaneers scored 17 straight points to lead by a touchdown at halftime. The Buccaneers would hang on for a 48-40 win at the Mercedes-Benz Superdome as the Saints dropped their fifth consecutive season opener. But after the four straight 0-2 starts, the 2019 Saints would rebound after the opening loss to win ten straight contests.

The third quarter was all Tampa Bay as they scored a touchdown and a field goal for a 41-24 lead, followed by a 50-yard touchdown connection from QB Ryan Fitzpatrick to WR Mike Evans at the start of the fourth quarter.

But QB Drew Brees led New Orleans on a 10-play, 75-yard drive when they got the ball back. RB Alvin Kamara then scored a one-yard touchdown and rushed for the two-point conversion.

On the ensuing offensive possession for Tampa Bay, the Buccaneers, Fitzpatrick connected with WR DeSean Jackson for a 35-yard completion, but New Orleans remained within 16 when K Chandler Catanzaro had a 44-yard field goal attempt go wide right.

Brees, who tossed for 439 yards in the contest, threw his third touchdown pass of the game with 3:31 left in the contest and then connected with WR Ted Ginn Jr. on the two point conversion to put the Saints within eight points. However Tampa Bay was able to deplete the clock at the two-minute warning after Fitzpatrick rushed 12 yards for a first down on a third-and-11 situation.

GAME NOTES

New Orleans won the contest despite losing the turnover battle 2-1.

WR Michael Thomas had 12 receptions for a 89 yards and two touchdowns, setting an NFL record with 28 catches in the first two games of a season.

DE Cameron Jordan recorded two sacks.

It was New Orleans' first home win against Cleveland since a 25-20 victory on Oct. 14, 1990.

The Saints earned their first victory of 2018 through the combination of a strong defense, a steady offensive performance and big plays in the kicking game.

The two clubs traded field goals in the first quarter. A Saints drive was then stalled on a lost fumble by WR Ted Ginn Jr. near midfield. But the New Orleans defense would hold up as CB Ken Crawley stopped Cleveland RB Duke Johnson for a loss on fourth and one. Following a missed field goal attempt by K Wil Lutz, Cleveland took the lead back when K Zane Gonzalez kicked a 39-yard field goal.

Following an unsuccessful Saints drive to open up the third quarter, Browns RB Carlos Hyde put his team ahead 12-3 on a one-yard touchdown with Gonzalez missing the extra point. When Cleveland got the ball back after another stalled Saints drive, New Orleans caught a break when a 44-yard field goal attempt by Gonzalez went wide left. The Saints would then move to within two when QB Drew Brees engineered a nine-play, 66-yard drive that ended with a two-yard touchdown pass to WR Michael Thomas.

New Orleans and Cleveland then traded three-and-outs, but two plays after the Saints punted the ball back, S Marcus Williams picked off Browns QB Tyrod Taylor at the Cleveland 40-yard line and returned it 22 yards to the 18. Four plays later, Brees and Thomas connected on a five-yard TD to go up 18-12. The Browns then tied the score on a touchdown, but Gonzalez missed the extra point attempt. Brees then led the Saints on a six-play, 49-yard drive that ended with a 44-yard field goal by Lutz and after Gonzalez missed a 52-yard attempt, the Saints had exited with their first win.

GAME 4 AT NY GIANTS

SAINTS: 33 GIANTS: 18
METLIFE STADIUM
EAST RUTHERFORD, N.J. - 9/30/18
ATTENDANCE: 78,213 TIME: 3:02

GAME NOTES

The victory gave New Orleans an all-time 14-16 record against the Giants with their first win in three tries at MetLife Stadium.

RB Alvin Kamara carried 19 times for a career-high 134 yards (7.1 avg.) with three touchdowns and caught five passes for 47 yards for 181 total yards from scrimmage.

LB Demario Davis had 11 tackles and two sacks as he was named NFC Defensive Player of the Week.

The Saints fell behind by a touchdown early in the contest, then roared back with 19 straight points on the strength of rugged performances by the defense, RB Alvin Kamara and K Wil Lutz.

New Orleans outgained New York 170-65 on the ground, while the club notched its third consecutive win.

While the Giants took a first quarter lead with a two-yard touchdown connection from QB Eli Manning to WR Sterling Shepard, Lutz drilled four straight field goals, all in the second quarter, to give New Orleans a five-point lead at halftime. The Saints defense also forced a pair of fumbles.

Kamara posted the second 100-yard rushing day of his career with 134 yards on 19 carries with a career-best three touchdowns on the ground.

Kamara had only 32 yards rushing in the first half before taking over the ground game with 102 in the final two periods, including a 49-yard rushing touchdown in the fourth quarter to clinch the contest.

New Orleans had an aggressive defensive approach from the defensive line back to the secondary, led by LB Demario Davis who led the team with 11 tackles and two sacks. DT Tyler Davison added a quarterback take-down to lead a line that gave up only 65 rushing yards. In the second quarter with New Orleans trailing 7-6, CB P.J. Williams forced a fumble that was recovered by CB Marshall Lattimore and returned 37 yards to set up a go-ahead field goal.

The win marked the first time the Saints defeated the Giants on the road since December 24, 2006.

GAME 5 VS. WASHINGTON

SAINTS: 43 REDSKINS: 19
MERCEDES-BENZ SUPERDOME
NEW ORLEANS, LA. - 10/8/18
ATTENDANCE: 73,028 TIME: 3:05

GAME NOTES

The win marks the first time the Saints posted consecutive wins over Washington since 2002 and 2003. It's also the first time they have posted consecutive home victories in the series.

With his second quarter 62-yard touchdown pass to WR Tre'Quan Smith, QB Drew Brees became the National Football League's all-time passing yardage leader, surpassing Peyton Manning. Brees finished the contest with 72,103 career passing yards.

The Saints notched their fourth consecutive victory of the season, scoring 17 consecutive second half points to put the game away, the result of strong contributions from offense and defense. The win on Monday Night Football also served as a worldwide showcase for the breaking of one of the National Football League's most prolific records.

New Orleans had built up a 20-6 first half lead on two rushing touchdowns by RB Mark Ingram II in his 2018 debut and a one-yard touchdown connection from QB Drew Brees to TE Josh Hill. After the Saints defense then forced a punt, on the next play from scrimmage, Brees struck rookie WR Tre'Quan Smith for a 62-yard touchdown to make the signal-caller the NFL's all-time passing yardage leader. Washington got out of the first half with a late touchdown, facing a 26-13 deficit.

The Brees-Smith connection extended the lead at the start of the third quarter with a 35-yard pass play. On Washington's next possession, CB Justin Hardee made his first career interception and returned it 77 yards to set up a one-yard rushing TD for QB Taysom Hill. Washington QB Alex Smith was sacked three times and turned the ball over two times—once on a third quarter fumble following the interception. New Orleans batted down six of his throws.

Brees completed 26 of 29 (career-high 89.7%) passes for 363 yards, three touchdowns and a 153.2 passer rating. Smith had a total of three receptions for 111 yards.

A stout run defense held the Redskins to only 39 yards on the ground. S Vonn Bell led the run-stopping effort with eight tackles (seven solo) and a stop for a loss.

GAME 6 AT BALTIMORE

M&T BANK STADIUM
BALTIMORE, MD. - 10/21/18
ATTENDANCE: 70,639 TIME: 3:03

GAME NOTES

The second quarter one-yard touchdown connection between QB Drew Brees and TE Benjamin Watson was the signal-caller's 500th career scoring throw.

WR Michael Thomas led the Saints with seven receptions for 69 yards and his fourth quarter five-yard TD reception gave New Orleans a 21-17 lead.

RB Alvin Kamara had 17 carries for 64 yards and one touchdown.

The way the Saints won on the road for their fifth consecutive victory served as a valuable lesson in their quest to fight adversity throughout the season.

The offense lost the potential to score first when QB Taysom Hill fumbled on New Orleans' first possession at the Ravens six-yard line. QB Drew Brees threw the 500th touchdown of his career in the second quarter, but then the Saints did not score again going into the fourth quarter trailing 17-7, facing a Ravens defense that was ranked first in the National Football League going into the contest.

But New Orleans would rebound with 17 fourth quarter points and then leading 24-23 with 24 seconds left after a Baltimore touchdown, Ravens K Justin Tucker missed his first PAT attempt after making 222 straight attempts to guarantee New Orleans' fifth straight victory.

In a drive that started in the third quarter and led into the fourth, New Orleans gained 75 yards in 12 plays to move within three points as RB Alvin Kamara ran up the middle for a two-yard touchdown, the first second half touchdown given up by the Ravens in 2018 up to that point of the season.

Brees followed that scoring drive up with one that ended in a five-yard touchdown pass to WR Michael Thomas, while a 39-yard field goal by K Wil Lutz extended New Orleans' lead to 24-17 with 2:07 left. Ravens QB Joe Flacco found WR John Brown for a 14-yard touchdown, but following the missed extra point, New Orleans walked away with their third straight road victory.

GAME 7 AT MINNESOTA

SAINTS: 30 VIKINGS: 20
U.S. BANK STADIUM
MINNEAPOLIS, MN. - 10/28/18
ATTENDANCE: 66,801 TIME: 2:49

GAME NOTES

Rookie DE Marcus Davenport and DT Sheldon Rankins each recorded two sacks apiece.

CB P.J. Williams had his first career TD, picking off Vikings QB Kirk Cousins and returning it 45 yards to the end zone.

RB Mark Ingram II led the Saints in rushing, as he carried 13 times for 63 yards and RB Alvin Kamara had 76 total yards from scrimmage with two touchdowns.

Riding the legs of the running back combination of Mark Ingram II and Alvin Kamara, as well as two takeaways, including an interception return for a touchdown, New Orleans extended their winning streak to six with a road victory at Minnesota.

Ingram and Kamara combined for 168 total yards from scrimmage and two touchdowns. QB Drew Brees completed 18 of 23 passes for 120 yards and Taysom Hill completed a 44-yard pass to WR Michael Thomas, who finished with five grabs for a team-high 81 yards.

LB Alex Anzalone and CB Marshon Lattimore combined to make the biggest play of the game late in the second quarter, with Anzalone stripping Minnesota WR Adam Thielen at the New Orleans 13 and the corner returning it 54 yards to the Minnesota 33. Following a Vikings unsportsmanlike penalty, two plays later, Kamara punched in a one-yard touchdown and gave the Saints a 17-13 halftime lead.

Minnesota had one more chance to tie the contest after Wil Lutz's 42-yard field goal midway through the third quarter, but a 45-yard interception return by P.J. Williams ended the threat and gave New Orleans a comfortable 27-13 lead.

A fourth quarter 42-yard field goal by Lutz extended New Orleans' lead to 30-13. The Vikings then got back within ten in the contest when QB Kirk Cousins engineered a 13-play, 75-yard drive that ended with a one-yard touchdown pass to Thielen.

But when New Orleans got the ball back with 4:26, Ingram converted a key third-and-one rush that forced the Vikings to burn their final two timeouts and allow for an eventual Saints punt to the Minnesota 30-yard line with 1:09 left.

GAME 8 VS. L.A. RAMS

NEW ORLEANS, LA - 11/4/18

GAME NOTES

Late in the second quarter, LB Alex Anzalone recorded his first career interception.

QB Drew Brees completed 25-of-36 passes for 346 yards with four TDs and a 137.0 rating.

WR Michael Thomas led the team in receiving with 12 receptions for a franchise-record 211 yards, including a fourth quarter 72-yard scoring grab. Thomas would be named NFC Offensive Player of the Week.

The New Orleans Saints extended their win streak to seven on the backs of sterling performances from QB Drew Brees and his top two skill players on offense: RB Alvin Kamara and WR Michael Thomas, removing the Rams from the ranks of the National Football League's undefeated in the process and putting the Black and Gold in position for the NFC's number one playoff seed.

Brees' four touchdown passes went for 16 yards to Kamara, four to rookie WR Tre'Quan Smith, 13 to TE Benjamin Watson and 72 to Thomas. Thomas, who finished with 12 receptions for a franchise-record 211 yards, did most of the work on his touchdown grab, thrilling the Mercedes-Benz Superdome crowd with a fourth quarter catch-and-run to seal the victory. The Saints also scored twice in the first half on rushing touchdowns by Kamara, the second which came after an interception by LB Alex Anzalone. Kamara finished with a club-best 82 yards rushing, with 116 total yards from scrimmage, scoring a career-high three touchdowns for the third time this season.

The New Orleans' defense limited Los Angeles' powerful running game to only 92 yards rushing as they held an opponent to under 100 yards on the ground for the seventh consecutive contest.

Special teams also played an important role in the contest as K Wil Lutz drilled a fourth quarter 54-yard field goal and LB Craig Robertson snuffed out a second quarter fake field goal attempt, denying Rams H Johnny Hekker from gaining a first down.

PAUL BROWN STADIUM
CINCINNATI, OH. - 11/11/18
ATTENDANCE: 52,492 TIME: 2:44

GAME NOTES

New Orleans had a season-high 244 rushing yards and season-high 18 rushing first downs to lead the Saints to their eighth straight victory. RB Mark Ingram II had 13 carries for 104 yards and also added three receptions for 58 yards and a 28-yard TD.

DT Sheldon Rankins had two solo tackles and one sack.

WR Michael Thomas had eight receptions for 70 yards and two TDs.

The New Orleans Saints improved to 8-1 with a convincing win at Paul Brown Stadium over Cincinnati in a clash between two clubs with playoff hopes behind one of the most prolific running performances in team history. New Orleans' 244 yards rushing and 18 rushing first downs were season highs for a run-offense that would end up ranked sixth in the National Football League.

The Saints took a 7-0 lead on a seven-yard TD connection between QB Drew Brees and WR Michael Thomas. The Bengals then tied the score on a two-yard TD from QB Andy Dalton to WR John Ross. But fueled by a successful series where RB Mark Ingram II gained 27 yards and connected with Brees on a 28-yard TD, New Orleans ran up 44 straight points to take a commanding 51-7 lead.

New Orleans controlled the clock for a season-best 39:46 to go with the season-high 18 rushing first downs. The defense also came up strong, holding the Bengals to 14 points, starting a streak of six straight games where they would hold an opponent to 17 points or less. The New Orleans defense did not allow the Cincinnati offense to convert a third down on six attempts. LB Alex Anzalone, DE Alex Okafor, DT Sheldon Rankins and DE Cameron Jordan each recorded sacks among the front seven and S Marcus Williams and CB Eli Apple posted interceptions to represent a standout effort from the Black and Gold secondary.

GAME NOTES

RB Mark Ingram II carried 16 times for 103 yards with two TDs for his second consecutive 100-yard performance.

QB Drew Brees completed 22-of-30 passes for 363 yards with four touchdowns and a 153.2 passer rating.

DE Alex Okafor, LB Craig Robertson and DT Sheldon Rankins recorded one quarterback takedown.

Returning to the Mercedes-Benz Superdome to begin a five-day span between two home games, an explosive Saints squad performed in dominant fashion on offense and defense in a 48-7 win, capturing their ninth consecutive victory.

New Orleans never trailed in the contest and jumped out to a 17-0 lead through the start of the second quarter on a pair of touchdowns and a field goal.

Philadelphia finally struck with a rushing touchdown midway through the second quarter, however, New Orleans would take a 24-7 lead into halftime when QB Drew Brees engineered a seven-play, 84-yard drive that ended with a 15-yard touchdown pass to WR Tre'Quan Smith. The drive was powered by a 22-yard completion to Smith and a 30-yard reception by WR Michael Thomas.

Receiving the ball first at the start of the third quarter, Brees put together a methodical six-play, 70-yard drive that ended with a 23-yard scoring pass to Thomas. On New Orleans' next drive when the Saints took over on downs, RB Mark Ingram II punched in a one-yard TD.

The New Orleans defense continued their dominance as they stopped Philadelphia on downs two more times and S Chris Banjo recorded two fourth quarter interceptions, pitching a second half shutout. RB Alvin Kamara with a 37-yard touchdown reception and K Wil Lutz with a 19-yard field goal closed out the scoring for the Saints win over the defending Super Bowl champions.

GAME 11 VS. ATLANTA

SAINTS: 31 FALCONS: 17
MERCEDES-BENZ SUPERDOME
NEW ORLEANS, LA. - 11/22/18
ATTENDANCE: 73,017 TIME: 2:55

GAME NOTES

The win marked New Orleans' tenth consecutive victory, which gave them the second-longest winning streak in franchise history.

With TE Dan Arnold and WRs Austin Carr, Keith Kirkwood and Tommy Lee Lewis each catching touchdowns from QB Drew Brees, it marked the first time in NFL history that four different undrafted players caught touchdowns for a club in a single contest.

S Marcus Williams had a strip sack/forced fumble/fumble recovery of Falcons QB Matt Ryan at the Atlanta seven-yard line early in the first quarter to save a potential score.

The Saints put together a gritty performance on both offense and defense to give them a 31-17 Thanksgiving night win at the Mercedes-Benz Superdome, giving New Orleans their first series sweep over Atlanta since 2015.

The New Orleans defense put together a dominating performance against the Atlanta offense, surrendering only 26 rushing yards on 16 carries (1.6 avg.) and posting six sacks, a key forced fumble inside the ten-yard line, two fumble recoveries and one interception.

After QB Drew Brees connected with WR Tommy Lee Lewis on a 28-yard touchdown, S Marcus Williams sacked Atlanta QB Matt Ryan at the Saints seven-yard line and recovered the ball. Later in the first quarter, LB DeMario Davis sacked Ryan on a series to force a short field goal.

Saints K Wil Lutz drilled a 22-yard field goal at the start of the second quarter and then the Saints forced a three-and-out, the key play being a sack by DT Sheldon Rankins. New Orleans WR Austin Carr then caught a 12-yard touchdown from Brees. Atlanta attempted to rally late in the quarter, but LB Alex Anzalone stripped WR Julio Jones and S Vonn Bell recovered to give New Orleans a 17-3 lead.

Four days after rallying from ten points down late in the fourth quarter to nearly beat Dallas, a comeback would not be in the cards on Thanksgiving for the Falcons as midway through the third quarter Brees connected with TE Dan Arnold for a 25-yard touchdown.

The Falcons responded with a two-yard TD pass from Ryan to WR Calvin Ridley, but a fourth quarter interception by LB A.J. Klein and five-yard touchdown connection between Brees and rookie WR Keith Kirkwood put the game out of reach.

The Saints defense limited Dallas to 99 rushing yards on 31 carries (3.2 avg.), while recording a season-high seven sacks.

LB Demario Davis led the New Orleans defense with 11 tackles (five solo).

DT David Onyemata posted a career-high three sacks, DE Cameron Jordan added two quarterback takedowns of Cowboys signal-caller Dak Prescott and a forced fumble/fumble recovery and CB Marshon Lattimore had a forced fumble/fumble recovery.

WR Keith Kirkwood recorded a touchdown reception for the second consecutive week.

The New Orleans Saints were defeated 13-10 by the Dallas Cowboys, snapping a ten-game winning streak, the second-longest in franchise history.

New Orleans compiled their lowest point total of the season, however they had rebounded from a 13-0 deficit with ten straight points following a Wil Lutz field goal and a 30-yard touchdown connection from quarterback Drew Brees to rookie wide receiver Keith Kirkwood. On a New Orleans punt early in the fourth quarter, what was originally ruled as downed at the Dallas one-yard line was reversed to a touchback following a Dallas challenge. The Cowboys offense then advanced to the New Orleans six-yard line, but defensive end Cameron Jordan sacked Dallas signal-caller Dak Prescott and recovered his fumble to give the Saints new life. Two plays later when Brees' pass with just over two minutes remaining in the contest was intercepted by Cowboys cornerback Jourdan Lewis, Dallas was all but guaranteed of holding on for the win.

Brees completed 18-of-28 passes (64.3%) for 127 yards and one touchdown. Running back Alvin Kamara led New Orleans in both rushing and receiving, while rookie wide receiver Keith Kirkwood recorded a receiving touchdown for the second consecutive week.

The Saints defense held the Cowboys to a 3.2 yards per carry average and sacked quarterback Dak Prescott seven times, a season-high in takedowns for the Saints. Linebacker Demario Davis had a team-high 11 tackles and defensive tackle David Onyemata had a career-high three sacks.

The Thursday night contest would be New Orleans' only blemish in five prime time appearances in 2018.

GAME 13 AT TAMPA BAY

SAINTS: 28 BUCCANEERS: 14
RAYMOND JAMES STADIUM
TAMPA, FL - 12/9/18
ATTENDANCE: 53,495 TIME: 3:12

GAME NOTES

The Saints defense limited Tampa Bay QB Jameis Winston to 18 completions, 213 yards with a long gain of 36 and CB Marshon Lattimore intercepted him in the end zone.

LB Demario Davis led the team with eight tackles and one pass defended.

WR Michael Thomas had 11 receptions for 98 yards to lead the Saints in receiving and yardage.

New Orleans captured back-to-back division titles for the first time in franchise history.

By the time K Wil Lutz drilled a 36-yard field goal with 1:12 remaining in the contest to complete a 25-point second half outburst, New Orleans was well on their way to clinching back-to-back division titles for the first time in franchise history, the NFC South being the first of multiple goals in the chase for a world championship.

The Buccaneers took the lead on their first possession of the contest with QB Jameis Winston engineering a seven-play, 75-yard driving ending with an 11-yard TD pass to TE Cameron Brate.

New Orleans answered midway through the second half with a 30-yard field goal by Lutz on a nine-play, 52-yard drive. After the Saints defense forced a punt, the offense was driving, but Buccaneers LB Adarius Taylor intercepted QB Drew Brees and Winston and Brate struck again right before halftime with a one-yard touchdown connection.

A Brees fumble at the start of the third quarter was recovered by Buccaneers DE Jason Pierre-Paul, but Tampa Bay K Cairo Santos missed a 40-yard field goal attempt. Following another stalled New Orleans drive, the Saints took advantage of the prime scoring chance when QB Taysom Hill blocked a punt, setting up a one-yard Brees-FB Zach Line touchdown connection that eased the deficit to 14-11 after Alvin Kamara ran for a two-point conversion.

After New Orleans forced a three-and-out with a third down sack by DE Cameron Jordan, Brees engineered the go-ahead drive on ten plays and 51 yards ending with a one-yard touchdown dive.

GAME 14 VS. CAROLINA

SAINTS: 12 PANTHERS: 9
BANK OF AMERICA STADIUM
CHARLOTTE, N.C. - 12/17/18
ATTENDANCE: 74,188 TIME: 3:02

GAME NOTES

Panthers QB Cam Newton struggled against the Saints defense, completing only 16-of-29 passes for 131 yards with an interception and a 52.5 rating.

LB Demario Davis led the team with a team-high eight tackles, one sack and two passes defended.

In going 2-0 on Monday Night Football in 2018, the Saints closed out their prime time mark at 4-1

CB Eli Apple's second quarter interception in the end zone saved a potential Panthers score.

New Orleans' six-game stretch of giving up 17 or fewer points was the longest since an eight-game span from 1991-92.

The Saints improved their record to 12-2, holding onto the NFC's number one seed for the postseason after a loss by the Los Angeles Rams the prior evening, following a Monday night 12-9 victory over the Carolina Panthers at Bank of America Stadium. The victory also gave New Orleans wins in both of their Monday Night Football appearances for the season.

Kicker Wil Lutz booted first half field goals of 46 and 24 yards, and running back Alvin Kamara scored his 12th rushing touchdown of the season from 16 yards out in the fourth quarter to give the Saints the victory.

Kamara finished the contest with a game-high 153 all purpose yards. He carried 14 times for a game-high 67 yards, caught seven passes for 36 yards and returned a first quarter kickoff 50 yards to help set up Lutz's first field goal.

In enhancing New Orleans' own opportunities to hosting the entire postseason, the loss dropped the Panthers to 6-8 on the season with their sixth consecutive loss, virtually ending their playoff hopes.

The Panthers kept it close until a final drive in the fourth quarter all but guaranteed the New Orleans win, where quarterback Cam Newton's fourth down pass was tipped by line-backer Demario Davis, who added eight tackles and one sack.

Newton was harassed all night by the Saints defense, completing 16 of 29 passes for 131 yards and a second quarter interception in the end zone by cornerback Eli Apple. Newton was sacked four times.

Saints quarterback Drew Brees completed 23 of 35 passes for 203 yards, engineering an 11-play, 84-yard game-winning drive carrying over into the fourth quarter that ended with Kamara's rushing touchdown. New Orleans out-gained Carolina 346-247 in the contest.

RB Mark Ingram II scored one rushing TD to reach 50 for his career and become the club's all-time leader.

The New Orleans Saints gave their Mercedes-Benz Superdome faithful something to cheer about with the franchise's third 13-win season, all happening since 2009 with the 31-28 win over Pittsburgh.

Upon getting the ball after a Pittsburgh punt, the high-powered New Orleans offense was driving down the field but stopped when quarterback Taysom Hill was intercepted in the end zone. But the Saints would answer a Steelers field goal when a one-yard rushing touchdown by running back Mark Ingram II gave the Black and Gold a 7-3 lead. It was the club-record 50th rushing TD of Ingram's career.

Pittsburgh started the second quarter with a 30-yard field goal by kicker Chris Boswell, but running back Alvin Kamara answered with an eight-yard rushing touchdown. After a Pittsburgh touchdown and two point conversion tied the score, a 43-yard field goal by kicker Wil Lutz with two seconds left in the second quarter gave the saints a 17-14 halftime lead.

After falling behind 28-24 late in the third quarter following a pair of Ben Roethlisberger-Antonio Brown touchdown connections, quarterback Drew Brees tossed a one-yard pass to wide receiver Michael Thomas who leaped into the end zone for the winning score.

Defensive tackle Sheldon Rankins sealed the victory for the New Orleans, going back in coverage in a pass play and forcing Steelers wide receiver JuJu Smith-Schuster to fumble with the ball recovered by linebacker Demario Davis at the New Orleans 35-yard line with 32 seconds left on the clock - and the Saints prevailed 31-28.

RB Dwayne Washington carried 11 times for 108 yards, pacing a Saints rushing attack that gained 184 yards on the ground.

S Vonn Bell led the team with seven tackles (five solo).

New Orleans finished the regular season with 13 wins for the third time, all occurring since the 2009 season.

With a large number of the Saints' starters watching from the sidelines for most of the contest because the club had already clinched the NFC's number one seed in the playoffs, the Saints finished the regular season 13-3 with the 33-14 loss to Carolina in the regular season finale.

QB Drew Brees did not play in a contest for the first time since 2015, as fellow offensive starters such as T Terron Armstead, WR Ted Ginn Jr., RB Alvin Kamara, RT Ryan Ramsey, RG Larry Warford also sat out to rest for the playoffs.

In Carolina's first offensive drive, QB Kyle Allen, engineered an 11-play, 75-yard drive that ended with the rookie signal-caller running for a one-yard touchdown. The Panthers added one more touchdown at the end of the first quarter with a 15-yard touchdown by RB Cameron Artis-Payne.

The Panthers would build up a 23-0 half-time lead on the strength of an eight-yard touchdown pass from Allen to TE Ian Thomas and a 22-yard field goal by K Chandler Catanzaro.

Late in the third quarter, Carolina extended their lead to 30-0 on a 53-yard touchdown pass from Allen to RB Curtis Samuel.

New Orleans finally got on the scoreboard early in the fourth quarter on a nine-yard touchdown connection from QB Teddy Bridgewater to rookie WR Tre'Quan Smith. After a 51-yard field goal by Catanzaro, New Orleans scored for the second time in the contest when QB Taysom Hill rushed for a nine-yard touchdown with 3:47 left. Starting in place of QB Drew Brees in opening a contest for the first time since 2015, Bridgewater finished 14-of-22 for 118 yards with the touchdown pass to Smith and a fourth quarter interception, also carrying four times for 12 yards.

K Wil Lutz kicked two field goals, 37 and 29-yard kicks and TE Garrett Griffin caught a five-yard TD from QB Drew Brees. Lutz's second kick came following an interception by LB Demario Davis.

Los Angeles finally broke through in a second quarter drive when Zuerlein kicked a 36-yard field goal. Near the end of the first half, the Rams drove 81 yards in 7 plays-aided by 17- and 36-yard completions from QB Jared Goff to WR Brandin Cooks and scored on RB Todd Gurley's six-yard touchdown run.

The Rams got the ball to start the second half and New Orleans forced a three-and-out. The Saints then extended their lead to 20-10 on a two-yard touchdown pass from Brees to QB Taysom Hill, capping a 10-play drive. Los Angeles' offense then awakened when on a third-and-two Goff completed a pass to Cooks for a four-yard gain, followed by a 14-yard completion to the former Saints wideout and a 25-yard pass play on a second-and-third. The contest became a three-point game again when Goff completed a one-yard

New Orleans then would make it a three-point game again with 1:41 remaining on a 31-yard field goal by Lutz. A key play in the series was a 43-yard reception by WR Ted Ginn Jr. to put the Saints in field goal range. However with the 1:41 on the clock, Goff completed a 19-yard pass to WR Josh Reynolds, followed by a seven-yard pass to Cooks and a 16-yard throw to WR Robert Woods to put the Rams in field goal range. New Orleans only allowed the Rams to advance to their 39-yard line, but Zuerlein drilled a 57-yard field goal to end the Saints' Super Bowl LIII hopes.

JEFF IRELAND

ASSISTANT GENERAL MANAGER/
COLLEGE SCOUTING DIRECTOR

Jeff Ireland is in his fifth season as assistant general manager/college scouting director. In the draft, he's led an effort for the Saints selecting impact players in Alvin Kamara, Marshon Lattimore, Ryan Ramczyk, Sheldon Rankins and Michael Thomas, as well as young starters and contributors in Alex Anzalone, Vonn Bell, Marcus Davenport, David Onyemata, Andrus Peat, Tre'Quan Smith, Marcus Williams and P.J. Williams.

In 2017, Ireland led a draft effort headlined by Lattimore and Kamara becoming the first rookie duo from the same team since 1967 to sweep AP Defensive and Offensive Rookie of the Year and the first Saints rookie duo selected to the Pro Bowl as rookies. They followed up with strong second seasons in 2018. Kamara led the team with 1,592 total yards from scrimmage with 18 touchdowns and his second Pro Bowl. Lattimore led the team with five takeaways. A second round draft pick in 2016, Thomas's 321 receptions are the most by an NFL player in his first four seasons. He shattered the club receiving record in 2018, posting an NFL-best 125 receptions for 1,405 yards and nine touchdowns, earning Pro Bowl starter and AP first-team All-Pro.

Prior to joining the Saints, Ireland served as general manager of the Miami Dolphins from 2008-13. Inheriting a 1-15 team upon his arrival, he worked with the personnel staff to overhaul the team's roster, efforts that resulted in an 11-5 mark and the AFC East title, an unprecedented turnaround. He replaced almost half the roster, bringing on board 27 new faces, including nine new starters. Eight players he acquired through the draft, free agency and trades accounted for a total of 14 Pro Bowl selections, with Jake Long and Cameron Wake earning AP first-team All-Pro.

Ireland joined Miami after a seven-year stint (2001-07) with the Dallas Cowboys, his last three seasons as the team's VP/college and pro scouting. He was originally hired as the team's national scout. In 2007, the Cowboys went 13-3 and won the NFC East. Of the 53 players on the roster, 38 had been acquired over the three years (2005-07) Ireland served as the team's VP/scouting, seven making the Pro Bowl during that time. He began his Cowboys tenure as the team's national scout in 2001. In his four years in that role, his talent evaluation helped lead to the drafting of four Pro Bowl performers.

Prior to joining the Cowboys, Ireland spent four years in Kansas City as an area scout. He served as a National Football Scouting Combine area scout from 1994-1996 and helped coach special teams at North Texas from 1992-1993. He graduated from Baylor, where he handled placekicking from 1988-1991, finishing third on the school's all-time scoring list with 213 points and a career-record 45 field goals. He was selected as the South team's kicker in the 1992 Senior Bowl.

The Abilene, Texas native, is the stepson of Chiefs Hall of Fame LB/C E.J. Holub and the grandson of former Eagles player and Bears personnel executive Jim Parmer.

MICHAEL STANFIELD

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT OF SALES

As Senior Vice President of Sales of the New Orleans Saints and New Orleans Pelicans, Michael Stanfield is a key member of the front office for both clubs. The long-time sports administrative executive is responsible for overseeing the entire consumer and corporate sales efforts for both the New Orleans Saints and New Orleans Pelicans, the two revenue-producing facets of both organizations.

Entering his 20th season with the Saints and eighth with the Pelicans, Stanfield is responsible for all of both clubs' sales efforts - directing the sale of season tickets, group tickets, floor seats and corporate partnerships, developing sales executives to the next level in their field, supervising the lease of the Mercedes-Benz Superdome and Smoothie King Center luxury suites, managing food and beverage for both facilities, overseeing a vast merchandising business for both teams flanked by a Saints and Pelicans team store, as well as maintaining the clubs' high standards of customer service and retention.

Since taking over leadership of the Pelicans' ticket sales and merchandising efforts, the organization has seen an increase in season-ticket sales and merchandise sales that were the second-biggest growth in the NBA.

Under his direction, the Saints have surpassed the majority of the club's ticket sales milestones, including selling out on a season-ticket basis for the first time in franchise history in 2006 – a feat that has reached 13-straight seasons. In addition the club has leased every Superdome suite since the beginning of the 2008 campaign. Saints official merchandise has grown annually into one of the NFL's top sellers. Stanfield also supervises the ticket, suite sales and box office personnel on a daily basis, in addition to serving as the food and beverage service liaison with the Mercedes-Benz Superdome.

Since Stanfield's arrival in 2000, the Saints have sold out every contest in the Superdome but one. Prior to the 2006 season, an innovative season-ticket marketing program fueled the rise of filling the stadium on a season-ticket basis. Fans on all economic levels were reached in an effort to retain existing accounts while cultivating new ones, and those efforts built a waiting list that has continued to grow for season tickets for the first time in franchise history. In 2017, the team established a single-season regular season attendance record for games played at the Mercedes-Benz Superdome with 585,113 fans attending Saints games.

Stanfield has also helped oversee the institution of a direct mail and email database to generate ticket sales and excitement surrounding the club and initiated other creative promotional campaigns by using the club's ever-expanding social and new media platforms. The Saints have been ranked number one by the National Football League in Overall Gameday Satisfaction for the past two seasons in a survey conducted by the NFL's League Observation Program and third party Expert Review Audits of all 32 clubs in an eight-category review. In 2017, the Pelicans were ranked first in the NBA in season ticket holder satisfaction in a league-commissioned survey.

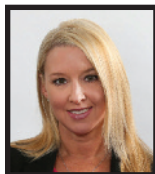

At the same time as making fan experience a top priority, Stanfield's also been deeply involved in the extension and expansion of the already sizable corporate sponsorship base for both clubs. In recent years, Stanfield has directed the extension of long-term agreements with numerous valued partners like Chevron, Cox Communications, Entergy and Verizon, as well as the expansion of the Ochsner Health System partnership to include naming rights for the Ochsner Sports Performance Center.

A graduate of St. Leo (Fla.) University, Stanfield started his career in sports, serving as the assistant general manager of the Clinton (Iowa), Class A baseball team in 1988 and had attained impressive sales results in sports prior to joining the Saints in 2000. In 2007, Stanfield completed Stanford Business School's Executive Education NFL-Stanford Program for Managers, an educational program and honor known league-wide as an important training ground for promising executives.

Stanfield is on the Board of Directors for the Jefferson Chamber of Commerce, and served a member of the Super Bowl XLVII Host Committee and the Executive Host Committee for the 2014 and 2017 NBA All-Star Games. A sports industry public speaker, Stanfield has given presentations at many national events. He is also an active speaker at numerous youth foundations and professional groups both nationally and throughout the Gulf South.

POSTSEASON GAME SUMMARIES

MINNESOTA VIKINGS • 44 SAINTS • 10

NFC Wild Card Playoff (Jan. 3, 1988) - Louisiana Superdome (68,127)

The Vikings spoiled the Saints' playoff debut by racing out to a 21-point lead at halftime and never looking back in an NFC Wild Card Playoff game in the Superdome. New Orleans struck first when QB Bobby Hebert found WR Eric Martin for a ten-yard TD pass early in the first quarter, but the Vikings answered with 24 consecutive points. The Saints scored their final points on a 40-yard FG by K Morten Andersen late in the first half. A "Hail Mary" TD pass from QB Wade Wilson to WR Hassan Jones as the second quarter ended pushed the Vikings lead to 31-10. The Saints were held without a rushing first down in the contest while only moving the chains nine times. Minnesota controlled the ball for over 41 minutes, posting 28 first downs and rushing for 210 yards in the victory.

NFC Wild Card Playoff (Jan. 6, 1991) - Soldier Field (60,767)

In a clash between two of the NFL's top defenses, the Bears jumped ahead 10-0 and held off the Saints in an NFC Wild Card Playoff game at Soldier Field. The Bears went up 3-0 on a K Kevin Butler 33-yard FG after an interception. Chicago surged ahead by 10 points when QB Mike Tomczak connected with TE James Thornton on an 18-yard scoring pass. K Morten Andersen got the Saints on the scoreboard with a 47-yard FG with 1:38 remaining in the half. The teams traded FGs in the final quarter, with Andersen drilling a 38-yard kick and Butler connecting from 21 yards out to produce the winning margin. Chicago RB Neal Anderson rushed 27 times for 102 yards and hauled in four passes for 42 yards as the Bears rolled up 365 total yards to the Saints' 193 yards of offense.

NFC Divisional Playoff (Jan. 13, 2007) - Louisiana Superdome (70,001)

RB Deuce McAllister set a team playoff record with 143 rushing yards in leading the Saints to a come-from-behind victory over Philadelphia in the NFC Divisional Playoffs. McAllister, making his first NFL postseason appearance, rushed for one touchdown and caught another. New Orleans took the early lead after a pair of field goals, but Philadelphia struck on a 75-yard touchdown pass in the second quarter. The Saints responded with a lengthy drive capped by a four-yard TD burst by RB Reggie Bush, but the Eagles took a lead into halftime after an 80-yard touchdown drive. Philadelphia RB Brian Westbrook shook loose for a 65-yard touchdown run to open the second half, giving the Eagles a 21-13 advantage. But McAllister put the Saints ahead by capping the next two drives with a five-yard scoring run and an 11-yard TD reception. Philadelphia would add a field goal in the final quarter, but the Saints forced a punt on the Eagles' final possession, and the offense picked up a key first down to run out the clock and preserve the victory.

CHICAGO BEARS • 39 SAINTS • 14

NFC Conference Championship (Jan. 21, 2007) - Soldier Field (61,817)

In the club's first appearance in the NFC Championship Game, after trailing 16-0 the Saints sliced the Bears' lead to two points and were behind by only four early in the fourth quarter, but four turnovers proved too difficult to overcome. A fumble led to Chicago's first field goal late in the first quarter, and another fumble on the ensuing kickoff added another three-pointer for the Bears a few minutes later. Chicago would drive for a field goal in the second quarter to go ahead 9-0 and march for a TD on its next drive to take a 16-0 lead. The Saints would get on the scoreboard when WR Marques Colston hauled in a 13-yard touchdown with 51 seconds remaining in the first half. Chicago's lead shrunk to 16-14 when RB Reggie Bush scored on an 88-yard TD early in the second half. But QB Drew Brees was flagged for intentional grounding in the end zone for a safety later in the third quarter, and the Bears wore down the Saints in the fourth quarter following a pair of New Orleans turnovers and after the Saints failed to convert on two fourth-down attempts.

SEATTLE SEAHAWKS • 23 SAINTS • 15

NFC Divisional Playoff (Jan. 11, 2014) - CenturyLink Field (63,388)

Held scoreless until a fourth quarter rally, New Orleans was unable to overcome a 16-0 halftime deficit to the Seahawks who put an end to their playoff run. After New Orleans was forced into a three-and-out on the game's opening drive, Seattle took advantage of a 16-yard punt by P Thomas Morstead in windy conditions to set up a 38-yard field goal by K Steve Hauschka. Hauschka drilled another FG in the first quarter and Seattle increased their lead to 16-0 in the second quarter on a 15-yard TD run by RB Marshawn Lynch and a 26-yard FG. Following a scoreless third quarter, The Saints trimmed the deficit to 16-8 at the start of the fourth quarter on a one-yard TD run by RB Khiry Robinson followed by a two-point conversion by RB Mark Ingram. Late in the fourth quarter, a missed field goal attempt by New Orleans gave Seattle favorable field position and Lynch ran in a 31-yard TD. QB Drew Brees connected on a nine-yard TD with WR Marques Colston with 26 seconds left, but time ran out on the rally after the Saints recovered the onside kick.

NFC Wild Card Playoff (Jan. 7, 2018) - Mercedes-Benz Superdome (73,186)

In the team's first playoff game in New Orleans since the 2011 season, the Saints jumped out to a 21-6 second quarter lead before holding on for the 31-26 Wild Card victory. After both teams failed to score on their first two possessions, QB Drew Brees completed an 80-yard pass to WR Ted Ginn Jr. In between two Panthers field goals, the Saints extended the lead to 21-6 on a nine-yard TD pass to TE Josh Hill and a one-yard TD run by FB Zach Line, but the Panthers got within 12 at the end of the half with a 58-yard Graham Gano kick. In the third quarter, the clubs traded field goals. Carolina pulled to 24-19 on a 14-yard TD pass from QB Cam Newton to TE Greg Olsen. But Brees led the Saints on a five-play, 62-yard drive with a two-yard TD run by RB Alvin Kamara. Behind 31-26, Panthers S Mike Adams picked off Brees with 1:51 left, but a sack by S Vonn Bell on fourth and 23 sealed the win.

The Saints' resurgent season ended at U.S. Bank Stadium, as Vikings receiver Stefon Diggs scored on a 61-yard reception from quarterback Case Keenum as time expired. The play ended an inspired effort by New Orleans who rebounded from a 17-0 halftime deficit to take a 24-23 lead on a 43-yard field goal by Wil Lutz. Minnesota increased their lead to 17-0 in the second quarter on a one-yard rushing TD by Latavius Murray. The Saints charged back on two touchdown receptions by Michael Thomas. A 49-yard field goal by Vikings kicker Kai Forbath was answered by a 14-yard touchdown pass from Drew Brees to Alvin Kamara to give New Orleans a 21-20 lead with 3:01 left. The clubs traded field goals, but the late catch-and-run extinguished New Orleans' hopes.

On July 29, 1995, an illustrious career as a football administrator was capped when Jim Finks was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio. Finks' posthumous election to the Hall was the ultimate honor in a career full of significant accomplishments.

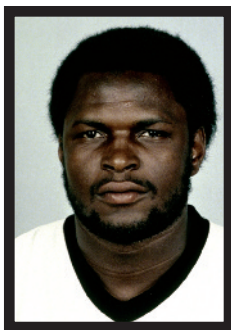

Finks was named president/general manager of the Saints on January 14, 1986 by Owner Tom Benson. As Benson's first major hire since purchasing the team in 1985, Finks brought with him a portfolio of success as a player, coach, scout and administrator that had spanned 37 years in sports.

Much like his prior stints as general manager with the Minnesota Vikings and Chicago Bears, Finks' final stop would also be a success. Hiring head coach Jim Mora and picking impact players in guard/tackle Jim Dombrowski, running backs Dalton Hilliard and Rueben Mayes and linebacker Pat Swilling in his first draft, a franchise that had not achieved a winning season in 20 years would log a 12-3 mark in 1987, second-best in the NFL and go on to their first-ever playoff game. Finks' presence was apparent and recognized as he was named The Sporting News NFL Executive of the Year.

Under Finks' leadership, the Saints would continue to have success, winning their first division title in 1991 as the NFC West championship flag flew in New Orleans for the first time. However, shortly after his final draft in 1993, where he mined a future Pro Football Hall of Fame selection in tackle William Roaf, Finks would be forced to resign due to a valiant fight with lung cancer that would claim his life on May 8, 1994. Overall from 1986-92, the Saints would win 60 percent of their regular season games and enjoy a streak of six consecutive non-losing years. Over that period, only two other NFL teams had the same accomplishment.

Prior to coming to New Orleans, Finks served as general manager of the Chicago Bears from 1974-83, where he set about construction of one of the NFL's most dominating teams. Before his departure, Finks would acquire 19 of the 22 starters for a Bears team that compiled a 15-1 record in 1985 and crushed New England in Super Bowl XX. During his 10-year tenure in Minnesota, Finks hired then-unknown Bud Grant as head coach and the Vikings followed with a string of five NFC Central crowns and two Super Bowl appearances.

The Salem, Ill. native played quarterback at Tulsa University and was a 12th round selection of the Pittsburgh Steelers in 1949. Finks played defensive back until 1952, when he became the Steelers' starting quarterback and went to the Pro Bowl. After retiring as an NFL player following the 1955 season, he served as an assistant coach for two seasons before beginning his career as an administrator as the general manager of Calgary of the Canadian Football League in 1958.

RICKEY JACKSON

LINEBACKER

BORN: 3/20/58
COLLEGE: PITTSBURGH
NFL: 1981-93
SAINTS: 1981-93
YEAR INDUCTED: 2010

One of the most productive linebackers in National Football League history, Rickey Jackson served as the linchpin of one of the most dominant linebacker corps the league has ever seen. He became the first Saint to have spent the majority of his career with New Orleans to have been selected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

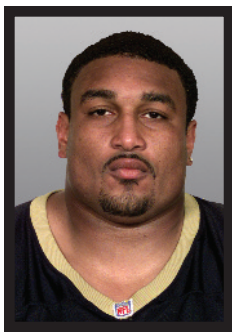

The Pahokee, Fla. native had an outstanding college career at Pittsburgh and was picked in the second round (51st overall) by the Saints in the 1981 NFL Draft. Jackson appeared in 227 regular season games, starting 225 during 15 NFL seasons, 13 of which were spent with the Saints. With 115 as a Saint, he is the club's all-time leader. Jackson led the club in takedowns six times. He missed only two games out of a possible 229 regular season games in his career.

Jackson finished his career with 128 sacks, (his eight sacks in his rookie season of 1981 are not included since sacks did not become an official statistic until 1982) ranked tenth all-time in NFL history. He is also the franchise's all-time leader in fumble recoveries with 26.

As a show of respect by opposing coaches and players for his dominating pass rush abilities and sideline to sideline play, Jackson was named to the Pro Bowl six times (1983-86, 1992-93) in his career, tied for the third-most by a Saint. He was an All-Pro selection six times (1984-87, 1992-93). After failing to post a winning campaign in the franchise's first 18 seasons, Jackson's Saints did not have a losing season in his final seven campaigns with the club from 1987-93, qualifying for the playoffs four times during this period.

Jackson would close out his NFL career with San Francisco from 1994-95, earning a championship ring as part of the Super Bowl XXIX winners. Jackson retired as a Saint in 1996 and his number 57 jersey was raised to the rafters of the Superdome. He was inducted into the New Orleans Saints Hall of Fame in 1997 and to the Louisiana Sports Hall of Fame in 1999. In 2013, he was inducted into the New Orleans Saints Ring of Honor and in 2016 was named to the franchise's All-50th team.

TACKLE

BORN: 4/18/70
COLLEGE: LOUISIANA TECH

SAINTS: 1993-2001
YEAR INDUCTED: 2012

One of the most accomplished tackles in National Football League history, William Roaf was the anchor of the Saints offensive line for nine seasons. Coming out of Louisiana Tech in 1993, Roaf was picked by the Saints with the eighth overall choice in the 1993 NFL Draft.

The Pine Bluff, Ark. native immediately was inserted by head coach Jim Mora into the starting lineup at right tackle, where he would start every contest and was selected to several All-Rookie teams. The 6-5, 312-pounder moved to the left side in his second season where he was named a Pro Bowl starter and Associated Press first-team All-Pro, which would begin a 12-year stretch as one of the most dominant left tackles in NFL history.

During his nine seasons with the Saints, Roaf was named to the Pro Bowl seven consecutive times (1994-2000), the second-most appearances ever by a Saint. Following a trade to the Kansas City Chiefs in 2002, he would be selected four more times, totaling 11 total selections, tied for the most nominations by a tackle in league history with Anthony Munoz and Jonathan Ogden. He also was an eight-time AP All-Pro selection, with four selections from each club. Overall, Roaf started all 189 regular season games and three postseason contests he appeared in for the Saints and Chiefs.

Roaf received one of football's highest honors as he was named to the NFL's All-Decade teams of the 1990's and 2000's, voted on by the Pro Football Hall of Fame selection committee. He was a first-team selection for the 1990's squad and a second-team choice on the 2000's roster, making him one of only 16 players since the AFL-NFL merger to be named to two All-Decade rosters. Additionally, Roaf was named to the Saints Hall of Fame in 2008 and is a member of the Louisiana and Arkansas Sports Hall of Fames. In 2013, he was inducted into the New Orleans Saints Ring of Honor. In 2014 he was elected to the College Football Hall of Fame and in 2016 was named to the franchise's All-50th team.

MORTEN ANDERSEN

KICKER

BORN: 8/19/60
COLLEGE: MICHIGAN STATE
NFL: 1982-2004, 2006-07
SAINTS: 1982-1994
YEAR INDUCTED: 2017

One of the most decorated kickers in NFL history, Andersen became only the second exclusive placekicker to be inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame. The NFL's all-time scoring leader until the 2018 season played in an NFL record 382 games during his 25-year career with five teams.

The Copenhagen, Denmark native was the Saints scoring weapon for 13 seasons after being selected by New Orleans in the 1982 NFL Draft in the fourth round (86th overall) out of Michigan State. During his Saints career, Andersen was named to the Pro Bowl four consecutive times and six-times overall (1985-88, 1990, 1992) and was named a first team AP All-Pro selection five times (1985-88, 1992). He finished his Saints career as the club's all-time leader in scoring with 1,318 points, in games played with 196 appearances, in seasons played with 13, field goals made 302 and 25 consecutive field goals made. Andersen went on to play eight seasons for the Falcons (1995-2000, 2006-07) becoming Atlanta's all-time scoring leader, earning Pro Bowl and AP All-Pro selections in 1995. In the 1999 NFC Championship game, he made a game-winning kick in overtime to beat Minnesota 30-27. Andersen spent the 2001 season with the Giants, the 2002-03 campaigns with the Chiefs and the 2004 season with the Vikings.

Andersen's illustrious career would break almost every NFL kicking and scoring record. In his 25 seasons, he became the NFL's all-time leader in scoring with 2,544 points, in games played with 382 appearances, in field goals made with 565, achieved NFL records with 22 seasons with 90+ points, scored in an NFL record 360 straight games. The seven-time Pro Bowler and six-time All-Pro hit 22 game winning kicks in the final two-minutes or less, with seven of them taking place in overtime.

Andersen received one of the greatest honors in football as he was named to the NFL's All Decade teams of the 1980's and 1990's, voted on by the Pro Football Hall of Fame selection committee. The "Great Dane" was named a first-team selection for both the 1980's team and 1990's roster, making him one of only 16 players since the AFL-NFL merger to be named to two All Decade teams. Andersen is a member of the Saints Hall of Fame (2009), the Louisiana Sports Hall of Fame (2011), the Saints Ring of Honor (2015) and the club's All-50th team (2016).

1967 Expansion Draft

Held Feb. 10, 1967

In what became the foundation of New Orleans' first team, the Saints selected 42 players in an expansion draft, using the same procedures as in the formation of the Atlanta Falcons in 1966. The Falcons were exempted from the expansion draft in 1967, thus leaving 14 teams from whom the Saints selected players. The procedures that were in place for the Saints were as follows: Each of the other 14 NFL teams froze 29 players from its 40-man roster, leaving 11 players available to be selected. The Saints chose one player from those 11 remaining on each team. Then, each team froze two additional players, leaving eight on each list, from which the Saints chose two more.

HISTORY

WELCOME TO THE

Mercedes-Benz Superdome

The Mercedes-Benz Superdome, home of the Saints, is one of the nation's premier sports and entertainment venues. Originally constructed in 1975, the 44-year old building has continued to serve as one of the nation's top facilities since a $336 million renovation of the building that was completed in 2011, most recently hosting Super Bowl XLVII, the 2012 NCAA Men's Final Four and the 2012 BCS College Football National Championship Game.

Since the Mercedes-Benz Superdome opened in 1975 (originally the Louisiana Superdome until 2011), it's served as the home of the Saints, sold out on a season ticket basis since the club returned to the facility in 2006 following a one-year hiatus due to Hurricane Katrina. The stadium's also the site of two college bowl games and also hosts world class concerts and other events that keep it busy year round.

To cap off the stadium's rebirth, the facility was renamed the "Mercedes-Benz Superdome" in 2011 after reaching a 10-year comprehensive naming rights and sponsorship agreement with Mercedes-Benz USA.

Since the start of the facility's renovation in 2006, counting preseason and playoff games, the Saints have played to 134 consecutive sellouts. They set a team record for attendance inside the stadium in 2017 with 585,113 fans during the regular season, an average of 73,139 per game. The Saints' largest crowd in the Mercedes-Benz Superdome occurred on November 24, 2014, when 73,373 fans packed the stadium for a Monday Night Football matchup against the Baltimore Ravens.

In addition to the Saints, Super Bowls and other championship sporting events have been a prominent part of the history of the Mercedes-Benz Superdome. No other facility can match the seven Super Bowls played inside the stadium following Super Bowl XLVII, played on February 3, 2013. The facility will host its eighth Super Bowl in 2024. The stadium has also played host to the annual Sugar Bowl college football game, five NCAA men's basketball Final Fours, three BCS College Football Championship games and two NCAA College Football Playoff semifinal contests.

Ground was broken on the Superdome on August 11, 1971. The facilities opened its doors on August 3, 1975 and the first football game was played on August 9 when the Saints hosted the Houston Oilers in a preseason contest. After being inoperative for a year due to damage sustained during Hurricane Katrina, the stadium reopened to a nationally televised audience on September 25, 2006 when the Saints defeated the Atlanta Falcons 23-3.

Almost immediately after the Saints defeated the Minnesota Vikings 31-28 in overtime in the NFC Championship on January 24, 2010 to advance to the Super Bowl for the first time, the stadium underwent its most comprehensive enhancement and renovations over an 18-month period. Among the upgrades were the addition of 15 luxury suites to increase the building's number to 152, widened concourses and a revamped plaza level moving patrons closer to the action, adding 3,400 lower bowl seats, renovation of four club lounges and the construction of two field level bunker club lounges, Wi-Fi throughout the stadium's campus and a brand-new team store. Outside of the Mercedes-Benz Superdome, a new exterior skin with bronze panels was created, flanked by the addition of "Mercedes-Benz Superdome" signage on the roof. A new exterior lighting system has the ability of utilizing every color of the rainbow to showcase various designs and messages in the evening, which can be seen from miles away. In 2016, the facility debuted two new state-of-the-art LED video boards.

As part of a long-term lease agreement between the Saints and the State of Louisiana through 2025 which resulted in these stadium upgrades, Saints ownership and the State of Louisiana have also co-developed a state-of-the-art 121,000 square foot entertainment zone called Champions Square presented by Verizon, which first opened in 2010. The fan entertainment area operates before and after Saints games and features a large music stage, a 32 x 18 foot LED video board, a state-of-the-art sound system, special lighting and multiple food vendors to create a tailgate environment for fans. It can accommodate more than 9,000 people. In addition to the food available from a group of restaurants that celebrate New Orleans' rich culinary heritage, there is also an ultra-modern lounge, club XLIV, which provides a luxurious experience for fans and is available year round for private rental.
